ALLIED HEADQUARTERS. Algiers — (AP)—U. S.

Flying Fortresses today bombed Mt. Cassino and its historie monastery, transformed by the Nazis into a fortress, beginning an all-out offensive to crack the German line while ground troops maintained pressure both in the Cassino and Anto invasion brideshead areas.

The bombs drove about 300 Germans out of the massive shelter of the monastery into the raking fire of Alic artillery, and Allied guns laid a barrage down upon the monastery and enemy hillerest positions here whether the doughboys, fighting only a few hundred yards away, had occupied the abbey after this thunderous fire, or on the extent of the damage to the monastery.
