No Waste
Of Empty
Stocking
Funds

The Charlotte Community Council, which is working with the Charlotte News Empty Stocking Fund this year to insure a complete and adequate Christmas for Mecklenburg County, estimates that a minimum of $500,000 will be required for such a program, and the Empty Stocking Fund total today has almost reached that figure.

Generous News readers by the score have responded to the appeal for funds to make Christmas happy for the less fortunate. The amount needed will be turned over to the agencies handling the fund — the Salvation Army and the Family Guidance Service Bureau, and all in excess of that amount will be set aside for another Christmas. There will be no "overspending" because contributions have been more than gracious.

The response to the call for Empty Stocking Fund has indeed been most gratifying.

The News noted with special pleasure the generous contribution of Curtis, the Charlotte Observer, with a check for $100. Mr. Johnson sent a note in which he said, "Many congratulations upon the success of your campaign this year. It seems to me that the public is responding more generously than in prior years."

There have been many generous contributions and many letters that have been encouraging to those keeping the annual drive for the unfortunate at Christmas time. One such letter was that of Mrs. H. B. Harris Jr. She added, "I am sure that this small contribution comes from my little daughter, Mary Craig Harris, whose stocking will NOT be empty. I hope she will be able to make some other little girl's Christmas a happy one. The only thing to keep ours from being also empty is that we have been here in Japan, but we've decided there are a good many things even worse than that — and maybe one of them is a little girl's stocking."

Hauptmann
Boy Named
Beneficiary

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

NEWARK, N. J. — M. M. Hauptmann, the 19-year-old son of the man executed for the kidnap murder of the Lindbergh baby, has been named a beneficiary in the will of an elderly spinster.

The will of Miss Emilie Kurtz of East Orange, died for probate today, bequeathed the sum of $100,000 to the Kurtz Savings account with the Central Savings Bank, downtown branch, New York City.

In her will, Miss Kurtz commented on the Hauptmann bequest as follows: "I am sorry that you ask me to bequeath my estate to him, but I do not know either him or any member of his family. I have for some time been of the opinion that he should be handicapped in life and I should like to extend to him some aid in his unequal struggle for existence."

Bank officials declined to give the total in the account, but sources close to the family estimated that Hauptmann would receive about $300.

Miss Kurtz, of German descent, died Nov. 4 at the age of 85.
