

Conferees Fail Again To Settle Teen-Age Draft Issue

Compromise Offer Made By Senators Is Rejected... Early Agreement Seen, However

Homes Prime Need

Strike Armistice Sought To Reach Army Budget Full Production

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Stabilization Director Chester Bowles said today he is hopeful of getting a no-strike pledge from labor so that industry can hit and maintain full scale production.

Would Outlaw Bombs

Russian Atomic Bomb Considered

NEW YORK—(AP)—Members of the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission weighed today a Russian plan for a world convention to outlaw atomic weapons which, if adopted, would compel the United States to destroy all her atom bombs within three months.

India Plan Hits Snag

NEW DELHI—(AP)—The powerful Congress Party delayed today a decision of the British independence plan for an interim Indian government because its president-designate, Jawaharlal Nehru, had been arrested in Kashmir state.

Pauley Reaches Japan

TOKYO—(AP)—U. S. Reparations Commissioner Edwin W. Pauley arrived in Japan tonight from Mukden, Manchuria. They expected to remain in Tokyo two days before leaving for the United States.

Smart mothers know the easy way to please hungry, tired youngsters is to serve them frequent backyard picnics of cool, Summer meals. Shopping, itself, is easier, these hot, hot days, when you shop the Thursday food pages of

House Gets $7,091,034 Army Budget

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A $7,091,034,700 Army budget—biggest ever in peacetime and with an extra $175,000,000 tossed in for atomic energy development—went to the House floor today.

Measures As 'Booby Traps'

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Economic Stabilizer Chester Bowles left open today the question whether he will resign if price control bills he regards as inflationary "booby traps" should become law.

Meat Supply Drop Likely

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Preshadowing even sadder supplies of meat than now exist in many cities, the Agriculture Department reported today that the nation's big packers were virtually forced to curtail production by further advances in prices.

Paris Decision

PARIS—(AP)—A British informant said the Foreign Ministers Council agreed today that British and American troops in Italy and Russian troops in Bulgaria should be evacuated within 90 days after peace treaties with those two countries go into effect.

Troop Evacuation Agreement Made

JERUSALEM—(AP)—The Jewish city of Tel Aviv was proclaimed out of bounds today for all British troops, except military police and patrols following a pact signed by the British and Jewish representatives in the city.

Tal of 25 In Palestine

TEL AVIV—(AP)—The Jewish High Commissioner for Palestine today announced that he had ordered the evacuation of 25 British troops from the city.

Plot Failed

BERLIN—(AP)—Albert Speer, former German munitions minister, declared to the International Military Tribunal today he had determined to kill Adolf Hitler in his chancellery bunker in Berlin in March last year but was unable to do so.

Speer Claims He Planned To Slay Hitler

BERLIN—(AP)—Albert Speer, former German munitions minister, declared to the International Military Tribunal today he had determined to kill Adolf Hitler in his chancellery bunker in Berlin in March last year but was unable to do so.

Weather

Considerable cloudiness and cooler with occasional rain and showers, but no heavy rain, Friday. Mild with scattered showers and thunderstorms.

Woman Talked Too Much

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman appealed today for public support of campaign for the United States Government's War Relocation Authority.

Truman Asks Support For USO Fund Drive

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman appealed today for public support of campaign for the United States Government's War Relocation Authority.

Resignation Talk Arises

Bowles Hits Price Control Measures As 'Booby Traps'

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Economic Stabilizer Chester Bowles left open today the question whether he will resign if price control bills he regards as inflationary "booby traps" should become law.

Meat Supply Drop Likely

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Preshadowing even sadder supplies of meat than now exist in many cities, the Agriculture Department reported today that the nation's big packers were virtually forced to curtail production by further advances in prices.

Paris Decision

PARIS—(AP)—A British informant said the Foreign Ministers Council agreed today that British and American troops in Italy and Russian troops in Bulgaria should be evacuated within 90 days after peace treaties with those two countries go into effect.

Troop Evacuation Agreement Made

JERUSALEM—(AP)—The Jewish city of Tel Aviv was proclaimed out of bounds today for all British troops, except military police and patrols following a pact signed by the British and Jewish representatives in the city.

Tal of 25 In Palestine

TEL AVIV—(AP)—The Jewish High Commissioner for Palestine today announced that he had ordered the evacuation of 25 British troops from the city.

Plot Failed

BERLIN—(AP)—Albert Speer, former German munitions minister, declared to the International Military Tribunal today he had determined to kill Adolf Hitler in his chancellery bunker in Berlin in March last year but was unable to do so.

Speer Claims He Planned To Slay Hitler

BERLIN—(AP)—Albert Speer, former German munitions minister, declared to the International Military Tribunal today he had determined to kill Adolf Hitler in his chancellery bunker in Berlin in March last year but was unable to do so.

Weather

Considerable cloudiness and cooler with occasional rain and showers, but no heavy rain, Friday. Mild with scattered showers and thunderstorms.

Woman Talked Too Much

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman appealed today for public support of campaign for the United States Government's War Relocation Authority.

Truman Asks Support For USO Fund Drive

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman appealed today for public support of campaign for the United States Government's War Relocation Authority.

House Gets $7,091,034 Army Budget

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A $7,091,034,700 Army budget—biggest ever in peacetime and with an extra $175,000,000 tossed in for atomic energy development—went to the House floor today.

Measures As 'Booby Traps'

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Economic Stabilizer Chester Bowles left open today the question whether he will resign if price control bills he regards as inflationary "booby traps" should become law.

Meat Supply Drop Likely

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Preshadowing even sadder supplies of meat than now exist in many cities, the Agriculture Department reported today that the nation's big packers were virtually forced to curtail production by further advances in prices.

Paris Decision

PARIS—(AP)—A British informant said the Foreign Ministers Council agreed today that British and American troops in Italy and Russian troops in Bulgaria should be evacuated within 90 days after peace treaties with those two countries go into effect.

Troop Evacuation Agreement Made

JERUSALEM—(AP)—The Jewish city of Tel Aviv was proclaimed out of bounds today for all British troops, except military police and patrols following a pact signed by the British and Jewish representatives in the city.

Tal of 25 In Palestine

TEL AVIV—(AP)—The Jewish High Commissioner for Palestine today announced that he had ordered the evacuation of 25 British troops from the city.

Plot Failed

BERLIN—(AP)—Albert Speer, former German munitions minister, declared to the International Military Tribunal today he had determined to kill Adolf Hitler in his chancellery bunker in Berlin in March last year but was unable to do so.

Speer Claims He Planned To Slay Hitler

BERLIN—(AP)—Albert Speer, former German munitions minister, declared to the International Military Tribunal today he had determined to kill Adolf Hitler in his chancellery bunker in Berlin in March last year but was unable to do so.

Weather

Considerable cloudiness and cooler with occasional rain and showers, but no heavy rain, Friday. Mild with scattered showers and thunderstorms.

Woman Talked Too Much

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman appealed today for public support of campaign for the United States Government's War Relocation Authority.

Truman Asks Support For USO Fund Drive

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman appealed today for public support of campaign for the United States Government's War Relocation Authority.

Suit Asks Dissolution Of Hooded Organization

Effort To 'Rule' State Charged

ATLANTA—(AP)—The State of Georgia instituted court proceedings today seeking to dissolve the charter of the Ku Klux Klan, charging that the hooded organization is trying to "take control of Governmental agencies."

Meat Supply Drop Likely

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Preshadowing even sadder supplies of meat than now exist in many cities, the Agriculture Department reported today that the nation's big packers were virtually forced to curtail production by further advances in prices.

Paris Decision

PARIS—(AP)—A British informant said the Foreign Ministers Council agreed today that British and American troops in Italy and Russian troops in Bulgaria should be evacuated within 90 days after peace treaties with those two countries go into effect.

Troop Evacuation Agreement Made

JERUSALEM—(AP)—The Jewish city of Tel Aviv was proclaimed out of bounds today for all British troops, except military police and patrols following a pact signed by the British and Jewish representatives in the city.

Tal of 25 In Palestine

TEL AVIV—(AP)—The Jewish High Commissioner for Palestine today announced that he had ordered the evacuation of 25 British troops from the city.

Plot Failed

BERLIN—(AP)—Albert Speer, former German munitions minister, declared to the International Military Tribunal today he had determined to kill Adolf Hitler in his chancellery bunker in Berlin in March last year but was unable to do so.

Speer Claims He Planned To Slay Hitler

BERLIN—(AP)—Albert Speer, former German munitions minister, declared to the International Military Tribunal today he had determined to kill Adolf Hitler in his chancellery bunker in Berlin in March last year but was unable to do so.

Weather

Considerable cloudiness and cooler with occasional rain and showers, but no heavy rain, Friday. Mild with scattered showers and thunderstorms.

Woman Talked Too Much

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman appealed today for public support of campaign for the United States Government's War Relocation Authority.

Truman Asks Support For USO Fund Drive

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman appealed today for public support of campaign for the United States Government's War Relocation Authority.

BOWLES

Secretary of State Acheson, Housing Administrator Wyatt, Secretary of Commerce Wallace and Secretary of Labor Schweitzer.

Bowles reiterated that "if the bill which finally comes from the Congress is clearly inadequate to deal with the inflationary forces we are facing, the only remaining hope is a firm and unequivocal veto" by President Truman.

He vetoed, he added, must then be followed by House and Senate action allowing effective price and rent control to continue as they are for another year. The present legislation expires June 30.

Bowles expressed the opinion that with the good bill of dangerous compromise and curbing, we can maintain relative stability in prices and rents during coming months.

With a "weakened bill," he said, the cost of living is bound to move upward at an increasing tempo and "we could only look forward to renewed labor unrest."

He was asked whether he would support separate appeals for effective price control by four top Government officials—Assistant

Secretary of State Acheson, Housing Administrator Wyatt, Secretary of Commerce Wallace and Secretary of Labor Schweitzer.

Bowles reiterated that "if the bill which finally comes from the Congress is clearly inadequate to deal with the inflationary forces we are facing, the only remaining hope is a firm and unequivocal veto" by President Truman.

He vetoed, he added, must then be followed by House and Senate action allowing effective price and rent control to continue as they are for another year. The present legislation expires June 30.

Bowles expressed the opinion that with the good bill of dangerous compromise and curbing, we can maintain relative stability in prices and rents during coming months.

With a "weakened bill," he said, the cost of living is bound to move upward at an increasing tempo and "we could only look forward to renewed labor unrest."

He was asked whether he would support separate appeals for effective price control by four top Government officials—Assistant

Secretary of State Acheson, Housing Administrator Wyatt, Secretary of Commerce Wallace and Secretary of Labor Schweitzer.

Bowles reiterated that "if the bill which finally comes from the Congress is clearly inadequate to deal with the inflationary forces we are facing, the only remaining hope is a firm and unequivocal veto" by President Truman.

He vetoed, he added, must then be followed by House and Senate action allowing effective price and rent control to continue as they are for another year. The present legislation expires June 30.

Bowles expressed the opinion that with the good bill of dangerous compromise and curbing, we can maintain relative stability in prices and rents during coming months.

With a "weakened bill," he said, the cost of living is bound to move upward at an increasing tempo and "we could only look forward to renewed labor unrest."

He was asked whether he would support separate appeals for effective price control by four top Government officials—Assistant

Secretary of State Acheson, Housing Administrator Wyatt, Secretary of Commerce Wallace and Secretary of Labor Schweitzer.

Bowles reiterated that "if the bill which finally comes from the Congress is clearly inadequate to deal with the inflationary forces we are facing, the only remaining hope is a firm and unequivocal veto" by President Truman.

He vetoed, he added, must then be followed by House and Senate action allowing effective price and rent control to continue as they are for another year. The present legislation expires June 30.

Bowles expressed the opinion that with the good bill of dangerous compromise and curbing, we can maintain relative stability in prices and rents during coming months.

With a "weakened bill," he said, the cost of living is bound to move upward at an increasing tempo and "we could only look forward to renewed labor unrest."

He was asked whether he would support separate appeals for effective price control by four top Government officials—Assistant

Secretary of State Acheson, Housing Administrator Wyatt, Secretary of Commerce Wallace and Secretary of Labor Schweitzer.

Bowles reiterated that "if the bill which finally comes from the Congress is clearly inadequate to deal with the inflationary forces we are facing, the only remaining hope is a firm and unequivocal veto" by President Truman.

He vetoed, he added, must then be followed by House and Senate action allowing effective price and rent control to continue as they are for another year. The present legislation expires June 30.

Bowles expressed the opinion that with the good bill of dangerous compromise and curbing, we can maintain relative stability in prices and rents during coming months.

BOWLES

Secretary of State Acheson, Housing Administrator Wyatt, Secretary of Commerce Wallace and Secretary of Labor Schweitzer.

Bowles reiterated that "if the bill which finally comes from the Congress is clearly inadequate to deal with the inflationary forces we are facing, the only remaining hope is a firm and unequivocal veto" by President Truman.

He vetoed, he added, must then be followed by House and Senate action allowing effective price and rent control to continue as they are for another year. The present legislation expires June 30.

Bowles expressed the opinion that with the good bill of dangerous compromise and curbing, we can maintain relative stability in prices and rents during coming months.

With a "weakened bill," he said, the cost of living is bound to move upward at an increasing tempo and "we could only look forward to renewed labor unrest."

He was asked whether he would support separate appeals for effective price control by four top Government officials—Assistant

Secretary of State Acheson, Housing Administrator Wyatt, Secretary of Commerce Wallace and Secretary of Labor Schweitzer.

Bowles reiterated that "if the bill which finally comes from the Congress is clearly inadequate to deal with the inflationary forces we are facing, the only remaining hope is a firm and unequivocal veto" by President Truman.

He vetoed, he added, must then be followed by House and Senate action allowing effective price and rent control to continue as they are for another year. The present legislation expires June 30.

Bowles expressed the opinion that with the good bill of dangerous compromise and curbing, we can maintain relative stability in prices and rents during coming months.

With a "weakened bill," he said, the cost of living is bound to move upward at an increasing tempo and "we could only look forward to renewed labor unrest."

He was asked whether he would support separate appeals for effective price control by four top Government officials—Assistant

Secretary of State Acheson, Housing Administrator Wyatt, Secretary of Commerce Wallace and Secretary of Labor Schweitzer.

Bowles reiterated that "if the bill which finally comes from the Congress is clearly inadequate to deal with the inflationary forces we are facing, the only remaining hope is a firm and unequivocal veto" by President Truman.

He vetoed, he added, must then be followed by House and Senate action allowing effective price and rent control to continue as they are for another year. The present legislation expires June 30.

Bowles expressed the opinion that with the good bill of dangerous compromise and curbing, we can maintain relative stability in prices and rents during coming months.

With a "weakened bill," he said, the cost of living is bound to move upward at an increasing tempo and "we could only look forward to renewed labor unrest."

He was asked whether he would support separate appeals for effective price control by four top Government officials—Assistant

Secretary of State Acheson, Housing Administrator Wyatt, Secretary of Commerce Wallace and Secretary of Labor Schweitzer.

Bowles reiterated that "if the bill which finally comes from the Congress is clearly inadequate to deal with the inflationary forces we are facing, the only remaining hope is a firm and unequivocal veto" by President Truman.

He vetoed, he added, must then be followed by House and Senate action allowing effective price and rent control to continue as they are for another year. The present legislation expires June 30.

Bowles expressed the opinion that with the good bill of dangerous compromise and curbing, we can maintain relative stability in prices and rents during coming months.

With a "weakened bill," he said, the cost of living is bound to move upward at an increasing tempo and "we could only look forward to renewed labor unrest."

He was asked whether he would support separate appeals for effective price control by four top Government officials—Assistant

Secretary of State Acheson, Housing Administrator Wyatt, Secretary of Commerce Wallace and Secretary of Labor Schweitzer.

Bowles reiterated that "if the bill which finally comes from the Congress is clearly inadequate to deal with the inflationary forces we are facing, the only remaining hope is a firm and unequivocal veto" by President Truman.

He vetoed, he added, must then be followed by House and Senate action allowing effective price and rent control to continue as they are for another year. The present legislation expires June 30.

Bowles expressed the opinion that with the good bill of dangerous compromise and curbing, we can maintain relative stability in prices and rents during coming months.

BOWLES

Secretary of State Acheson, Housing Administrator Wyatt, Secretary of Commerce Wallace and Secretary of Labor Schweitzer.

Bowles reiterated that "if the bill which finally comes from the Congress is clearly inadequate to deal with the inflationary forces we are facing, the only remaining hope is a firm and unequivocal veto" by President Truman.

He vetoed, he added, must then be followed by House and Senate action allowing effective price and rent control to continue as they are for another year. The present legislation expires June 30.

Bowles expressed the opinion that with the good bill of dangerous compromise and curbing, we can maintain relative stability in prices and rents during coming months.

With a "weakened bill," he said, the cost of living is bound to move upward at an increasing tempo and "we could only look forward to renewed labor unrest."

He was asked whether he would support separate appeals for effective price control by four top Government officials—Assistant

Secretary of State Acheson, Housing Administrator Wyatt, Secretary of Commerce Wallace and Secretary of Labor Schweitzer.

Bowles reiterated that "if the bill which finally comes from the Congress is clearly inadequate to deal with the inflationary forces we are facing, the only remaining hope is a firm and unequivocal veto" by President Truman.

He vetoed, he added, must then be followed by House and Senate action allowing effective price and rent control to continue as they are for another year. The present legislation expires June 30.

Bowles expressed the opinion that with the good bill of dangerous compromise and curbing, we can maintain relative stability in prices and rents during coming months.

With a "weakened bill," he said, the cost of living is bound to move upward at an increasing tempo and "we could only look forward to renewed labor unrest."

He was asked whether he would support separate appeals for effective price control by four top Government officials—Assistant

Secretary of State Acheson, Housing Administrator Wyatt, Secretary of Commerce Wallace and Secretary of Labor Schweitzer.

Bowles reiterated that "if the bill which finally comes from the Congress is clearly inadequate to deal with the inflationary forces we are facing, the only remaining hope is a firm and unequivocal veto" by President Truman.

He vetoed, he added, must then be followed by House and Senate action allowing effective price and rent control to continue as they are for another year. The present legislation expires June 30.

Bowles expressed the opinion that with the good bill of dangerous compromise and curbing, we can maintain relative stability in prices and rents during coming months.

With a "weakened bill," he said, the cost of living is bound to move upward at an increasing tempo and "we could only look forward to renewed labor unrest."

He was asked whether he would support separate appeals for effective price control by four top Government officials—Assistant

Secretary of State Acheson, Housing Administrator Wyatt, Secretary of Commerce Wallace and Secretary of Labor Schweitzer.

Bowles reiterated that "if the bill which finally comes from the Congress is clearly inadequate to deal with the inflationary forces we are facing, the only remaining hope is a firm and unequivocal veto" by President Truman.

He vetoed, he added, must then be followed by House and Senate action allowing effective price and rent control to continue as they are for another year. The present legislation expires June 30.

Bowles expressed the opinion that with the good bill of dangerous compromise and curbing, we can maintain relative stability in prices and rents during coming months.

With a "weakened bill," he said, the cost of living is bound to move upward at an increasing tempo and "we could only look forward to renewed labor unrest."

He was asked whether he would support separate appeals for effective price control by four top Government officials—Assistant

Secretary of State Acheson, Housing Administrator Wyatt, Secretary of Commerce Wallace and Secretary of Labor Schweitzer.

Bowles reiterated that "if the bill which finally comes from the Congress is clearly inadequate to deal with the inflationary forces we are facing, the only remaining hope is a firm and unequivocal veto" by President Truman.

He vetoed, he added, must then be followed by House and Senate action allowing effective price and rent control to continue as they are for another year. The present legislation expires June 30.

Bowles expressed the opinion that with the good bill of dangerous compromise and curbing, we can maintain relative stability in prices and rents during coming months.

With a "weakened bill," he said, the cost of living is bound to move upward at an increasing tempo and "we could only look forward to renewed labor unrest."