

ADVERTISEMENTS

SURPRISE RELIEF FOR TIRED FEET!

Don't let tired feet due to overstrain get you down, rob you of recreation hours after work. Try a MU-COL foot-bath. Mix a little in warm water. Get the surprise of your life in FAST, worthwhile RELIEF. MU-COL brings soothing comfort in a jiffy... or your money back. At all drugstores.

Phone 633

TOMORROW FOR ONE OF OUR Bonded Messengers TO CALL FOR YOUR FURS

Let Us Keep Them

Safe in the Cold Storage Vaults

Here In Our Plant

EXPERIENCED FUR SERVICE

On Repairing - Restyling - Cleaning - Glazing

New System Laundry & Dry Cleaners

608-616 CALVERT ST.

Lee Center Lloyd Candidate For Supervisor Highway Head To Enter Primaries

LEE CENTER—Charles Lloyd, who has been superintendent of highways of the Town of Lee for the past eight years, today announced that he will be a candidate for the office of supervisor of the town at the Republican primaries.

Mr. Lloyd, a native of England, has lived in the town all but three years since coming to this country. He has always maintained his interests in affairs of the town, and has shared the work of the highway department with his men during the past eight years, the past winter having been an especially trying one.

He is a member of Lee Center Methodist Church and of Baron Steuben Lodge, F. & A. M. and is widely known throughout the town.

Advertising in the Sentinel is the cheapest way to tell thousands what otherwise only a few would know.

Walt Disney's Merry Menagerie

"I don't know what it is—but I DO know it improves my morale!"

With Hal Boyle Flaming Youth Grows Up

BLOOMINGTON, IND. —(AP)— Whatever happened to flaming youth?

Winding up a week as Ernie Pyle memorial lecturer at Indiana University, I find myself even more of a stranger to campus life than I expected 15 years after they stuck a sheepskin into my hands and foisted me off on a defenseless world.

I have a depressing feeling that present day students are a lot drier behind the ears than friends I slept through classes with half a generation ago.

They take their work and play and life in general more seriously than we ever did. Either that or—as I suspect—they regard me as too old and doddering at 36 to be let in on what is really going on in undergraduate life.

When I was studying to get what euphemistically was called an education, everybody was convinced the younger generation was going to the devil in a handwagon. At the very least they suspected we were learning more in rumble seats than we were in lecture halls. They had a point, too.

We used to feel self-complacent, rascally and raffish because ministers across the land still were denouncing colleges as state-paid love nests and politicians were labeling them cesspools of sedition.

Personally, I never learned much about love nests—all the co-eds ever gave me was a hard-earned slap in the face—and I couldn't even spell sedition. I just figured the ministers and politicians were talking about the boys in the fraternity house up the street, whose dads sent them more money.

But it was nice and soul-filling to know that all our elders were worried over how we were gambling down the primrose path—even though, with only $55 a month to live on, I thought I was walking on thorns.

About the only thing the moral beagles were right on was their contention the college boys were drinking too much. I do believe that at the average Saturday night dance the blood content of most fraternity men contained more than the 3.2 per cent alcohol then allowed by statute.

Today the college students, both men and women—seem to drink much less than in my time. Alcohol no longer is an adventure or a forbidden lure. Much of the fun of college drinking went out when you no longer had to buy it illegally behind a taxi stand at $2 a pint.

I used to have a poor boy's secret admiration for gilded students who were living up to the old definition of college as "a four-year loaf on father's dough."

There are fewer of these campus aristocrats about these days. There isn't room for them. The veterans who make better grades are crowding them out.

The chief signs of dissipation I have noted on the Indiana campus are mass tendencies on the part of the men students to tear down their digestive tracts with overstuffed hamburgers and to wear out their eyes reading pinball scores. I suppose the pinball machines teach them co-ordination. They will need this later in dealing with the atom bomb and other problems of their adult years.

Westmoreland Mrs. Ella Drum Dies in Hospital

WESTMORELAND—Mrs. Ella Drum, 82, died Sunday in Rome Hospital. She had been in failing health for several years.

She was born in Kingston, Ont., a daughter of David and Sarah Marshall Aylsworth. For more than 50 years, she had lived in Westmoreland. Her husband, the late George Drum, died March 17, 1947.

She was a member of the Methodist Church and Westmoreland Chapter, O. E. S.

Surviving are one sister, Mrs. Margaret Hughes, Westmoreland; one brother, William Aylsworth, Utica, and one niece, Mrs. George S. Aikenbacher, Rochester.

The private funeral service will be held at 1:30 p. m. Wednesday at the home of the Rev. George M. Pillsbury and burial in Westmoreland Cemetery. Members of Westmoreland Chapter, O. E. S., will meet at the home at 8 p. m. Tuesday to conduct the Eastern Star ritual.

Marian Lombardo May Bride Today

Wed at St. John's To Anthony Bremont

Anthony Lombardo gave his sister, Miss Marian Stella Lombardo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lombardo, 505 Roberts St., in marriage when she became the bride of Anthony William Bremont, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Bremont, 418 W. Liberty St., Saturday morning. The wedding was at the Church of St. John the Baptist at 10 o'clock. The Rev. Charles M. Drumm, assistant pastor, celebrated the nuptial mass and performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Harry Gerwig played the traditional wedding music during the ceremony.

The bride's gown of white satin, designed and fashioned by Mrs. Bremont, was made with high lace yoke, cape sleeves with which she wore lace gauntlets, fitted bodice and bustle skirt ending in a train. Her long tulle veil was edged with lace and she carried white roses with a shower of sweetpeas.

Miss Joanne Grieco was her maid of honor. With her gown of rose color she wore matching roses in her hair and carried a bouquet of yellow roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Marie Fazio, wore yellow with cape sleeves and yellow gauntlets. Her headress was of yellow rosebuds and she carried yellow roses.

Lawrence Riolo was best man and Anthony Rossi, usher.

After a reception at 418 W. Liberty St., the couple went to New York City, the bride wearing a black gabardine suit with black accessories and gray topper. Her corsage was red and white roses. The couple will make their home after May 11, at 419 W. Liberty St.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Rome schools. The bride has been employed by Goldberg's and Mr. Bremont is employed by General Cable Corp. He has served in the Army for two and a half years.

Showers were given for the bride by her co-workers at Goldberg's and her attendants entertained her at Miss Fazio's home, 125 Canal St.

Jury Will Report Here on May 19

Group Previously Noted for Today

The 48 trial jurors for Supreme Court listed Saturday to report here today are not scheduled to be called until Monday, May 19, Deputy Sheriff Harry W. Scott says. They will report for the term of Justice James T. Cross. The nine Romans on the list include: Francis H. Weber, 509 N. Madison St., Emory A. Abbuhl, R. D. 4, Victor H. Katz, 402 Riverside Drive; Theodore Prossner, 903

Croton St.; Ida Brady, 128 Wright St.; Francis L. Egan, 308 W. Oak St.; Leo W. Herrman, 702 W. Court St.; George E. Wafful, R. D. 5, and Joseph Harlander, 907 Floyd Ave.

Chosen from towns are: Austin J. Scully, Roy E. Strohecker, Mary C. Thomas, Alfred B. Coonroad, Irving F. Froeligh, and Josephine F. Fisher, New Hartford; Irene C. Tobin, Whitesboro; Clyde L. Hutchinson and Edward Emhoff, Oriskany; Albert G. Hazeldon, Waterville. E. Viola Johnson, Harry C. Dust and May O. Wafe, Camden.

Howard A. Schroder and Emily E. Peon, Clinton; Cornelius V. Smith, Sherrill; Glen G. Coleman, Remsen; Paul LaFayette, Waterville. William A. Eggison, Marcy, and George R. Lewis, Cassville.

Advertise today. Get results tomorrow.

Remember May 11th.

Mother's Day

GIFT SUGGESTIONS

Coats... Suits
Dresses... Blouses
Lingerie... Handbags

Harold's

159 W. DOMINICK ST.

Ambrose Czajkowski, Jr.

FUNERAL SERVICE

302 S. JAMES ST. PHONE 3760

TELLING the TOWN

UE-CIO

We who work in General Cable are your fellow workers. Many of us are related to you—your friends and neighbors. We've gone to school together, belong to the same clubs, worship in the same churches. Like you, we all work for our daily bread in the plants.

A little over a year ago the workers of General Cable, voted and won in a labor board election, the right to belong to a real labor organization, the UE-CIO. We were tired of having an Independent which could not help us and was unable to do anything for the workers.

In our UE-CIO Local 331 here in Rome, in contrast to what the leaders of other organizations would have you believe, our Union is ours—we run it. Every single member has a right to attend meetings which are publicized well in advance, so that every member knows of the meeting. Every single member has a right to speak, make motions and take an active part in all affairs. Financial statements are submitted every month to the workers. Our local constitution guarantees every member the right to inspect any records or financial books of the Local Union. All books are audited every three months and a report submitted to the membership. All actions and decisions of the local are subject to the approval of the membership. Our officers are nominated from the floor at a regular membership meeting of the local and elected in a real democratic election where every single member is entitled to vote. Every officer is a worker from the shop, who carries out the wishes of the membership at all times.

We of UE-CIO 331 here in Rome run our own Local at all times. We also have the help of our International Officers anytime we need it on a moments notice. UE-CIO Local 331 members as well as the membership in every local in the UE are a typical cross-section of some of the finest kind of American men and women. The worker of long experience, and great skill, the unskilled worker, young, middle-aged, and those along in years, men, women, farm-born and city born. For example, of the fifteen (15) Executive Board members of our Local, one is from Clark Mills, two from Camden, two from Onelda, one from Canastota, one from Coonrad, one from Cleveland, and seven from Rome. In short, the UE-CIO membership is made up of just the kind of men and women you yourself like to have as friends, and fellow workers.

We of Local 331 UE-CIO believe it necessary to bring these facts about our Union before you, because other labor leaders have attempted to place before the public, systematic distortions of the UE-CIO history.

Like the Revere workers we have had a long bitter experience with Company unionism. On May 7, through the election requested by the UE-CIO, Revere workers will have the opportunity they have long been waiting for. If you really want to protect your jobs, working conditions and future welfare, join with us. If you want a real Union to fight for you, we General Cable workers say to our fellow workers in Revere, you will best serve your own interests, and those of your family and community, by joining with us in the UE-CIO.

VOTE RIGHT BY VOTING UE-CIO ON MAY 7th

(This message, presented as a public service by Local 331, United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America, whose members are employees of the General Cable Corp. and Rome Smelting & Refining Co. Watch for "Telling the Town" in next Monday's paper.)

REMEMBER MOTHER

With a Gift From

VANITY SHOP

112 W. Dominick St.

Upstairs Over Stooks Stationery

Gift Suggestions

- Lingerie
- Wash Dresses
- Gloves
- Hose

If Your Car is Heating Up and Giving You Trouble

LET US Reverse Flush It The Scientific Way

Our Experienced Men Will Check All Hose and Replace It Where Needed. Spark Plugs, White Gas, Cleaning Fluid

J. LEROY CONNICK

Corner Floyd Avenue and E. Bloomfield St. Phone 436. Open Daily and Sundays Until 7 P. M.

NELSON'S

For you... the Glow of a Milkmaid complexion

Fresh milk in two delightful Milkmaid preparations brings your skin a new-found Glow. Wash your face with Milkmaid Cleansing Milk. Finish with Milkmaid Emulsion. Each 1.75 plus tax.

MILKMAID

Old Gold cures just one thing: The World's Best Tobacco!

Don't look for any medical property in Old Gold. Our only property is the choicest tobacco grown.

And do we treat this leaf with loving care! Nearly two hundred years of tobacco know-how... and every quality safeguard... combine to give you pleasure unlimited and nothing else.

Do you crave that kind of smoke? Are you on the alert for rich, mellow tobaccos at the positive peak of perfection? Then light up an Old Gold, chum—for Pleasure with a capital P!

Made by Lorillard, a famous name in tobacco for nearly 200 years