

STUDY GROUP MAY HAVE SOLUTION TO AVOID MIXED RACES IN SCHOOLS

TWO MODELS of the same vessel, one scale and the other real, are shown in these pictures. At top, a one-fifth scale model of the submarine Albacore hangs in a wind tunnel at the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics at Langley Field, Va. NACA scientists conducted this unusual experiment to help the Navy improve hull contour, the Navy has announced that its future subs will have the same shape as the Albacore, reputed to be the world's fastest submarine. At bottom, the Albacore itself heads toward deep water from the U. S. Naval Base at Portsmouth, N. H. (AP Wirephoto) help the Navy improve hull contour, the Navy has announced that its future subs will have the same shape as the Albacore, reputed to be the world's fastest submarine. At bottom, the Albacore itself heads toward deep water from the U. S. Naval Base at Portsmouth, N. H. (AP Wirephoto)

U. N. Faces Council Seat Vote Today

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y.—With its scheduled adjournment only hours away, the U. N. General Assembly headed into its sixth round of balloting today to try to break the deadlock over a disputed Security Council seat.

The United States again pledged its support for the Philippines Communist Yugoslavia, backed by the Soviet Union, and the Philippines are tied in the contest for the seat after a record 29 ballots. There was, however, growing belief that a compromise choice might emerge before nightfall. Both sides claimed the addition of 15 new member states would swing the trend in their favor. And both voiced confidence they had enough support to get the necessary two-thirds majority.

MAKES ATTEMPT Assembly President Jose Maza of Chile conferred yesterday with top representatives of the United States, Britain and France in an attempt to find a way to settle the issue.

Informed sources said Britain, which has been backing Yugoslavia, proposed Sweden as a compromise choice, but the United States insisted it would stick by the Philippines.

Informants said the Americans oppose Sweden anyway on grounds that the Scandinavian nation's recognition of Red China would play a role in the growing battle over Chinese representation. Italy and Austria also were reportedly suggested, but a number of diplomats are known to oppose giving such a high post to a new member.

Negotiations have become urgent over the past two weeks. Delegates feared that if the Assembly adjourned without filling the seat, the council would be out of business under the U. N. Charter, the 11-nation body cannot function without full membership.

The United States has tried to resolve the problem by proposing a rotation plan calling for election of the Philippines this year and Yugoslavia in 1957.

Our Weather
Clear, windy and cold today. Fair, and very cold tonight. Tomorrow, fair with slowly rising temperatures.
Low this morning—21.
Low tonight—15.
High yesterday—36.
High today—37.
High tomorrow—41.
Sunrise 7:24 a.m.; sunset 5:12 p.m.

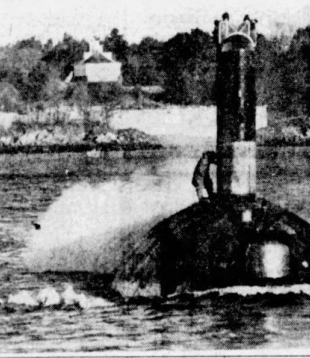

Coldest Night Of Season Due

More cold air was rushing to the Carolinas today as residents braced themselves for the coldest weather of the month. A 15-degree low is forecast for Charlotte tomorrow, four degrees under today's frigid 21.

Cold, clear, windy weather and tomorrow, but there's some chance of rain on the coast during the weekend. Today was the ninth straight day the temperature has dropped below the freezing point. The temperature fell below freezing on the morning of the 8th and sub-freezing weather has been the rule for the mornings ever since.

BELOW NORMAL The temperature is averaging slightly more than three degrees below normal for December. But winter mornings have been cold afternoons have been getting warmer. Yesterday's 56 was the highest since the 57 of Dec. 6. A chill 35 may be the best the sun can do today, but the temperature may rise to 42 or 45 tomorrow. A gusty breeze made today seem to the Carolinas today as residents braced themselves for the coldest weather of the month. A 15-degree low is forecast for Charlotte tomorrow, four degrees under today's frigid 21. Cold, clear, windy weather and tomorrow, but there's some chance of rain on the coast during the weekend. Today was the ninth straight day the temperature has dropped below the freezing point. The temperature fell below freezing on the morning of the 8th and sub-freezing weather has been the rule for the mornings ever since.

Dolphin Is Not Laughin' As Sailors Turn Whalers

ATAMI, Japan.—The U. S. Navy has landed again at this resort town south of Tokyo, and Fujiro Suzuki, operator of a hotel and aquarium, says this time he's just about had it.

His latest brush with the Navy, said he, cost him the front door to the aquarium, some furniture and the saved disposition of his favorite dolphin. "I have run this hotel and aquarium for the last five years and the same thing happens over and over again," Suzuki said.

Last night about 30 American sailors in a festive mood were waiting for launches to take them to their destroyer escorts in Atami Bay.

DOOR BROKEN DOWN It started to rain. The sailors broke down the front door of the aquarium to get in. While employees covered in a corner, the sailors aimed themselves by throwing tables, chairs and six rowboats at the dolphin, which was not hit but lost its playful disposition.

Suzuki says this is bad business, because the dolphin is one of his best attractions. LAW GIVEN SHORT COUNT BY VIOLATOR

LONG BEACH, Calif.—Among those traffic violators who paid fines yesterday at the Police Traffic Division there lurks a swindler. He hyped the city out of $9 right under the eyes of the law. Clerk A. A. Williams, counting the receipts from fines, came across a $1 bill among the $10 bills. He hadn't spotted it right away because, at the corners, it looked like a 10-spot. The culprit, said Williams, had snipped one corner off of $9 bills and passed them on corresponding corners of the $1 bill.

15-Degree Low Seen

Coldest Night Of Season Due

More cold air was rushing to the Carolinas today as residents braced themselves for the coldest weather of the month. A 15-degree low is forecast for Charlotte tomorrow, four degrees under today's frigid 21.

Cold, clear, windy weather and tomorrow, but there's some chance of rain on the coast during the weekend. Today was the ninth straight day the temperature has dropped below the freezing point. The temperature fell below freezing on the morning of the 8th and sub-freezing weather has been the rule for the mornings ever since.

BELOW NORMAL The temperature is averaging slightly more than three degrees below normal for December. But winter mornings have been cold afternoons have been getting warmer. Yesterday's 56 was the highest since the 57 of Dec. 6. A chill 35 may be the best the sun can do today, but the temperature may rise to 42 or 45 tomorrow. A gusty breeze made today seem to the Carolinas today as residents braced themselves for the coldest weather of the month. A 15-degree low is forecast for Charlotte tomorrow, four degrees under today's frigid 21. Cold, clear, windy weather and tomorrow, but there's some chance of rain on the coast during the weekend. Today was the ninth straight day the temperature has dropped below the freezing point. The temperature fell below freezing on the morning of the 8th and sub-freezing weather has been the rule for the mornings ever since.

temperatures plunged below freezing this morning into the Southeast coastal states and parts of the Gulf region. It was a frosty 39 in San Antonio, Tex., and 31 in Mobile, Ala.

The Arctic air which has cooled the mid-continent this week spread across the entire eastern area and much of the South yesterday. Temperatures dropped more than 20 degrees in many sections of the East. Similar drops were reported in the Southern Plains and northward from Texas over the middle and lower Mississippi Valley, the Ohio Valley and lower Michigan.

The coldest weather continued in the upper Mississippi Valley. Temperatures again today were below or around zero in many northwest cities. They didn't get much above zero in some northern areas yesterday.

Snow and snow flurries fell during the night and early morning from northern New England to the eastern Great Lakes region and southward into the Appalachian Falls at South Bend, Ind., and Syracuse, N. Y., measured an inch.

Temperatures this morning ranged from 6 below zero at International Falls, Minn., on the Canadian border, to 47 at Key West, Fla. Other reports: Chicago 7 and partly cloudy; Boston 12 and partly cloudy; Washington 17 and clear; Pittsburgh 8 and snow; San Francisco 33 and cloudy; Nashville 17 and clear; Minneapolis zero and clear; Detroit 17 and snow flurries; Louisville 14 and clear; St. Louis 11 and clear; Des Moines 4 and clear; Omaha 5 and clear; Oklahoma City 15 and clear; Spokane 17 and clear; Denver 22 and clear; Tampa 54 and clear; Phoenix 47 and clear.

The newspaper Asahi said two destroyer escorts anchored in Atami Bay last night were Nos. 412 and 414. Those are the numbers of the Walter C. Wann and Le Ray Wilson.

Raymond Hair May Go Free

RALEIGH.—Raymond Hair, former Wake Forest College student, charged with a first-degree second-degree murder, likely will be released on parole before Christmas.

An official of the State Paroles Board said today parole papers are being processed for consideration by the board and, "it is probable that he will be released." A native of Fayetteville, Hair was convicted in Wake Superior Court in April, 1950, in the slaying of Roy Cobble of Oakboro on the Wake Forest campus during the Christmas holiday season. Hair was given 25-30 years. He was granted two commutations which cut his sentence to 10 years.

Hair works in the Central Prison hospital. Burns Are Fatal OAKLAND, Calif.—A former farm hand died yesterday from burns suffered when a gasoline-drenched bedroom was ablaze. A woman with him was in critical condition.

The victims were Robert Leo Hand, 27, and Mrs. Alice Franklin, 35, a waitress. They were in Mrs. Franklin's apartment. Evening Prayer

Father, help us to see the simple yet useful talents with which Thou hast blessed us. Save us, O God, from the sins of excusing ourselves from contributing to a big cause because of our feeling of weakness. Help us to realize that we are part of the whole, and that every fraction of that whole counts. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

SEN. KEFAUVER

Kefauver Plans Strength Test In Primaries

WASHINGTON.—Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn.) plunged into the Democratic presidential nomination race today, and announced he will enter as many state primaries as time and money permit.

Kefauver, who led in the early balloting at the 1952 party convention, but lost the nomination to Adlai E. Stevenson, said he plans to give a vigorous campaign.

Stevenson already has announced he will enter five primaries. Kefauver is expected to meet Stevenson head on in some of these. Gov. Frank Lauch of Ohio has announced as a favorite son candidate. Gov. Averell Harriman of New York says he is an "active" candidate.

"GOOD THING" Kefauver said in a statement handed out at a Hollywood news conference that he thinks "it is a good thing for the Democratic party to have a choice of candidates for the presidential nomination."

"The Republican Party today suffers from lack of alternative candidates broadly representative of their party," Kefauver said. "It would not be a healthy thing for the Democratic party to be placed in such a position."

The Tennessee senator said he would contest in a "number" of state primaries. "I am a firm believer in the place of presidential primaries in our democracy," he said. "Beyond the limiting factor of my work in the Senate, the amount of money available for campaigns, and the possibility of conflicting dates, I will hope to enter as many as I can."

Kefauver already had announced that if he ran he would enter the June 5 California primary where a slate for Stevenson is expected to be on the ballot. Stevenson also will be entered in Minnesota, Illinois, Pennsylvania and Florida.

An official of the State Paroles Board said today parole papers are being processed for consideration by the board and, "it is probable that he will be released." A native of Fayetteville, Hair was convicted in Wake Superior Court in April, 1950, in the slaying of Roy Cobble of Oakboro on the Wake Forest campus during the Christmas holiday season. Hair was given 25-30 years. He was granted two commutations which cut his sentence to 10 years.

Hair works in the Central Prison hospital. Burns Are Fatal OAKLAND, Calif.—A former farm hand died yesterday from burns suffered when a gasoline-drenched bedroom was ablaze. A woman with him was in critical condition.

The victims were Robert Leo Hand, 27, and Mrs. Alice Franklin, 35, a waitress. They were in Mrs. Franklin's apartment. Evening Prayer

Father, help us to see the simple yet useful talents with which Thou hast blessed us. Save us, O God, from the sins of excusing ourselves from contributing to a big cause because of our feeling of weakness. Help us to realize that we are part of the whole, and that every fraction of that whole counts. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Report To Be Offered To N. C. In Near Future

RALEIGH.—The North Carolina Advisory Committee on Education said today it believes it can submit a report soon which will "not require any child of any age to be forced to attend a mixed school against his will."

In a brief report of Gov. Hodges, the committee said the report "will strengthen the assurance of the preservation of our public schools."

Contacted at Rocky Mount, Thomas J. Pearsall, committee chairman, said, "We are now working on the report." The committee hopes to make its report in the near future, he stated. The next committee meeting will probably be held some time after the first of the year.

MET TWO DAYS The seven-member committee met Wednesday and Thursday in Rocky Mount, but Pearsall said, "We arrived at no conclusions."

In its report to Hodges, the committee said detailed reports were made at the Rocky Mount meeting by the committee staff following their trip to Georgia, Mississippi, Louisiana, and Virginia, and their investigation of conditions in these states.

The committee added that its deliberations "are proceeding satisfactorily."

Talk Would Be Prevented JACKSON, Miss.—Rep. Jim Morrow said today he will ask the Legislature to prevent the Rev. Alvin Kershaw, the latest expert minister, from speaking at the University of Mississippi.

The Rankin County lawmaker said he will introduce a resolution early in the legislative session which begins Jan. 3.

Morrow's statement came the day after the board of trustees of Institutions of Higher Learning adjourned without taking action on the controversial scheduled speech.

"My only recourse now is to the Legislature in two or three weeks, and I assure the people a resolution will be introduced for their representatives to take whatever action they see fit," Morrow said.

Kershaw, Oxford, Ohio, Episcopal minister, won $22,000 on a television program 186,000 Questions for his knowledge of jazz music. He said after the program he might give part of his winnings to the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People to fight segregation.

What's Inside
Business 3B
Classified 12-17B
Comics 7B
Editorials 10A
Helen Irskine 7A
Features 2B
Jesus & His Times 5A
Obituaries 12B
Radio-TV 3B
Serial 15A
Sports 8-10B
Theaters 11B
Women 4-6B

Self Service Holdup LOUISVILLE, Ky.—Mrs. Winnie Caroland, 32, doesn't figure her job as a waitress includes dishing out cash to holdup men. So when the bandit entered the Dixieite grill—hand in pocket—and demanded the money in the cash register, she told him, "If you want the money get it yourself." He did.

SKING HOME with a Christmas tree, Peter Rusch and Bobby Bourdon make a Yule card picture on the Green Mountain slopes near their homes in Vermont. The Spruce Peak ski area of the New England village of Stowe, Vt., is in left background.