

THE CHARLOTTE NEWS

Established Dec. 8, 1888

Largest Evening Newspaper In The Two Carolinas
Charlotte, North Carolina, Wednesday, July 24, 1957

FINAL
24 Pages—Price Five Cents

WORLD NEWS

Bodies Recovered
TRENTO, Italy — (AP) — Italian Alpine rescue teams struggled slowly down the rugged face of the Fradusta peaks today with the bodies of 11 U. S. airmen killed when their twin-engine plane plowed into the mountainside last Friday.

8 Boys Seized
LINCOLN, Ill. — (AP) — Eight small boys were seized after police said they threw open a railroad switch so they could "see a train turn over." Their target came to a halt just in time as an engineer spotted the open switch.

Action Delayed
LONDON (AP) — Britain held up air strikes against rebel tribesmen in the Persian Gulf Sultanate of Muscat and Oman today after expiration of an ultimatum for them to call off an uprising.

Dam Voted Down
WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Interior Committee today voted 16-14 to kill a bill to authorize federal construction of a high Hells Canyon dam in the Snake River.

U.S. Plan Ready
LONDON (AP) — Harold E. Slassen today told the five-power disarmament conference he will submit tomorrow U. S. proposals on the future control of guided missiles and other rocket armaments. The American delegate was the only speaker at a seven-minute session of the U. N. disarmament subcommittee.

2 Die In Crash
WUERZBURG, Germany (AP) — A U. S. Army courier plane crashed while putting on a demonstration flight today before some 40 wide-eyed German children. Two men aboard were killed.

Summer's 9th Bomb Exploded
ATOMIC TEST SITE, Nev. — The ninth shot of the Atomic Energy Commission's current test series exploded in a brilliant, blue-purple flash at 4:30 a. m. here today.

Our Weather
Showers in the morning, becoming partly cloudy this afternoon and tonight. Thursday, sunny with moderate temperatures.

More Weather Data on Page 2-A
Go First to FIELDS — (Strips) FRIENDSHIP RINGS $1. — (Ad)

3 N.C. School Boards Vote For Limited Desegregation

Seven previously all-white schools in North Carolina's largest cities will admit a handful of Negro pupils next fall. School boards in Charlotte, Greensboro and Winston-Salem last night took the historic step in separate meetings and by unanimous action.

See other school stories on Page 6-A, Editorial on Page 4-A.

Forty-one applications for reassignment to white schools have been presented to the Mecklenburg County school board. It has given no indication when it will act on them.

The Charlotte board said in a formal statement it had acted only "after earnest and prayerful consideration of the many complex factors involved."

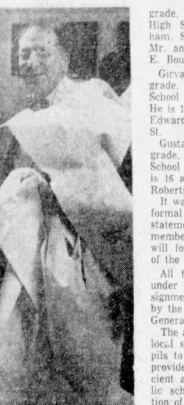

It stated its "chief motivation has been a sincere desire to preserve the public schools of Charlotte and North Carolina."

Some three dozen opponents of desegregation cheered Kenneth Whitsett of Charlotte when he told the local board following its vote that its action was an "outrage and a crime."

He said he was speaking "as a citizen," but the crowd of opponents obviously was composed largely of Patriots.

He presented the board with a petition he said contained 18,500 signatures opposing desegregation of the schools.

Three Negro girls and two boys were involved in the Charlotte board's action.

WHITSETT AND PETITION

He presented the board with a petition he said contained 18,500 signatures opposing desegregation of the schools.

Three Negro girls and two boys were involved in the Charlotte board's action.

William Pinkney Hamlin, 7th grade, from York Road Junior High School in Alexander Park.

She is 12, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Huntley of E. Boundary St.

Girvaud, Lily Roberts, 8th grade, from Second Ward High School to Piedmont Junior High. He is 12, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Roberts of N. McDowell St.

Gustav Allen Roberts, 11th grade, from Second Ward High School to Central High School. He is 15 and the brother of Girvaud Roberts.

It was obvious from the board's formal statement and private statements of individual board members that it hopes its action will forestall massive integration of the public schools.

All three of the boards acted under provisions of the Pupil Assignment act of 1955, as amended by the 1956 special session of the General Assembly.

The act "authorizes and directs" local school boards to assign pupils to specific schools "so as to provide for the orderly and efficient administration of such public schools, the effective instruction of the pupils therein enrolled, and the health, safety and general welfare of such pupils." Race is not mentioned.

The act "authorizes and directs" local school boards to assign pupils to specific schools "so as to provide for the orderly and efficient administration of such public schools, the effective instruction of the pupils therein enrolled, and the health, safety and general welfare of such pupils." Race is not mentioned.

The act "authorizes and directs" local school boards to assign pupils to specific schools "so as to provide for the orderly and efficient administration of such public schools, the effective instruction of the pupils therein enrolled, and the health, safety and general welfare of such pupils." Race is not mentioned.

The act "authorizes and directs" local school boards to assign pupils to specific schools "so as to provide for the orderly and efficient administration of such public schools, the effective instruction of the pupils therein enrolled, and the health, safety and general welfare of such pupils." Race is not mentioned.

The act "authorizes and directs" local school boards to assign pupils to specific schools "so as to provide for the orderly and efficient administration of such public schools, the effective instruction of the pupils therein enrolled, and the health, safety and general welfare of such pupils." Race is not mentioned.

The act "authorizes and directs" local school boards to assign pupils to specific schools "so as to provide for the orderly and efficient administration of such public schools, the effective instruction of the pupils therein enrolled, and the health, safety and general welfare of such pupils." Race is not mentioned.

The act "authorizes and directs" local school boards to assign pupils to specific schools "so as to provide for the orderly and efficient administration of such public schools, the effective instruction of the pupils therein enrolled, and the health, safety and general welfare of such pupils." Race is not mentioned.

The act "authorizes and directs" local school boards to assign pupils to specific schools "so as to provide for the orderly and efficient administration of such public schools, the effective instruction of the pupils therein enrolled, and the health, safety and general welfare of such pupils." Race is not mentioned.

The act "authorizes and directs" local school boards to assign pupils to specific schools "so as to provide for the orderly and efficient administration of such public schools, the effective instruction of the pupils therein enrolled, and the health, safety and general welfare of such pupils." Race is not mentioned.

The act "authorizes and directs" local school boards to assign pupils to specific schools "so as to provide for the orderly and efficient administration of such public schools, the effective instruction of the pupils therein enrolled, and the health, safety and general welfare of such pupils." Race is not mentioned.

The act "authorizes and directs" local school boards to assign pupils to specific schools "so as to provide for the orderly and efficient administration of such public schools, the effective instruction of the pupils therein enrolled, and the health, safety and general welfare of such pupils." Race is not mentioned.

BORN FIVE MINUTES APART were these cousins who are shown with their mothers, Mrs. F. W. Moore (left) and Mrs. L. R. Slaughter. Mrs. Slaughter and Mr. Moore are brother and sister. Mrs. Slaughter's daughter was born at 6:55 p. m. and Mrs. Moore's daughter at 7 p. m. yesterday at Mercy Hospital.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Mansfield (D-Mont.) urged the Senate today "in a spirit of reason" to convert the administration's civil rights bill into a measure aimed primarily at protecting voting rights.

Mansfield, the assistant Democratic floor leader, said that Part 3 of the bill, which the amendment would strike, "is simply a restoration of a Reconstruction statute. It can reopen old wounds, but it cannot heal them."

The arguments were voiced as the Senate pointed toward a mid-afternoon vote expected to approve an amendment stripping the bill of enforcement powers except for the protection of the right to vote.

Mansfield, the assistant Democratic floor leader, said that Part 3 of the bill, which the amendment would strike, "is simply a restoration of a Reconstruction statute. It can reopen old wounds, but it cannot heal them."

The arguments were voiced as the Senate pointed toward a mid-afternoon vote expected to approve an amendment stripping the bill of enforcement powers except for the protection of the right to vote.

Mansfield, the assistant Democratic floor leader, said that Part 3 of the bill, which the amendment would strike, "is simply a restoration of a Reconstruction statute. It can reopen old wounds, but it cannot heal them."

The arguments were voiced as the Senate pointed toward a mid-afternoon vote expected to approve an amendment stripping the bill of enforcement powers except for the protection of the right to vote.

Mansfield, the assistant Democratic floor leader, said that Part 3 of the bill, which the amendment would strike, "is simply a restoration of a Reconstruction statute. It can reopen old wounds, but it cannot heal them."

Stripping Of Power Proposed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Mansfield (D-Mont.) urged the Senate today "in a spirit of reason" to convert the administration's civil rights bill into a measure aimed primarily at protecting voting rights.

Mansfield, the assistant Democratic floor leader, said that Part 3 of the bill, which the amendment would strike, "is simply a restoration of a Reconstruction statute. It can reopen old wounds, but it cannot heal them."

The arguments were voiced as the Senate pointed toward a mid-afternoon vote expected to approve an amendment stripping the bill of enforcement powers except for the protection of the right to vote.

Mansfield, the assistant Democratic floor leader, said that Part 3 of the bill, which the amendment would strike, "is simply a restoration of a Reconstruction statute. It can reopen old wounds, but it cannot heal them."

The arguments were voiced as the Senate pointed toward a mid-afternoon vote expected to approve an amendment stripping the bill of enforcement powers except for the protection of the right to vote.

Mansfield, the assistant Democratic floor leader, said that Part 3 of the bill, which the amendment would strike, "is simply a restoration of a Reconstruction statute. It can reopen old wounds, but it cannot heal them."

The arguments were voiced as the Senate pointed toward a mid-afternoon vote expected to approve an amendment stripping the bill of enforcement powers except for the protection of the right to vote.

Mansfield, the assistant Democratic floor leader, said that Part 3 of the bill, which the amendment would strike, "is simply a restoration of a Reconstruction statute. It can reopen old wounds, but it cannot heal them."

The arguments were voiced as the Senate pointed toward a mid-afternoon vote expected to approve an amendment stripping the bill of enforcement powers except for the protection of the right to vote.

Mansfield, the assistant Democratic floor leader, said that Part 3 of the bill, which the amendment would strike, "is simply a restoration of a Reconstruction statute. It can reopen old wounds, but it cannot heal them."

Convicted Segregationists To Appeal Jury's Decision

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Kasper, 27, came into Clinton from Washington two days before the Negroes started to school. He took his own life Tuesday when charged that he was the "hub of the conspiracy" organized to force the Negroes out of the school.

Four other Clinton people were found innocent.

The jurors who are still meeting in the courtroom and many people outside it — were 10 men and two women, all of them white Tennesseans.

Asked To Give Up Room, Man Shoots 2 Women, Self

MUNCIE, Ind. — A crippled 80-year-old retired railroader, said to be worried about who would care for him, killed his landlady, wounded her daughter-in-law and took his own life Tuesday when asked to move from his rented room.

Arthur S. Kean shot 75-year-old Nancy Quirk with a .32-caliber pistol as she sat in her rocking chair. He wounded her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Irene Quirk, 57.

Kean, who wore artificial legs since losing both legs in a boyhood railroad accident, then walked to his room and shot himself.

Buying Improves Living Cost Sets Tenth New Mark

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government's cost-of-living index bounced up another one-half of one point in June to its tenth record high in as many months.

The increase reported today by the Bureau of Labor Statistics means that some 65,000 workers in the electrical manufacturing, aircraft, trucking and construction industries will have their pay increased by from two to four cents hourly under contracts entered into the consumer price index.

The spendable earnings of factory workers and the buying power of their paychecks also turned upward slightly in June, causing the first rise in "real earnings" since last December.

Parents Get Bomb Threat

RALEIGH (AP) — Parents of a Negro youth seeking admission to a segregated school here reported today they have received a bomb threat.

Parents Get Bomb Threat

RALEIGH (AP) — Parents of a Negro youth seeking admission to a segregated school here reported today they have received a bomb threat.

Joseph Hiram Holt Sr. said his wife answered the telephone yesterday to hear a man's voice threaten to bomb their home "if you don't quit sending messages to the school board."

The call, Holt said, was one of two anonymous messages received by his wife yesterday. The other, he added, came from a woman who informed Mrs. Holt she didn't want Holt's son going to school with her children.

Holt said he had reported the calls to the police. He added, "I try to ignore it but the calls scare, of course, upset my wife and placed her in a highly nervous condition."

The Raleigh School Board is scheduled to act Aug. 6 on an application of Joseph Hiram Holt Jr., 14, a student at Ligon School, who is asking that he be admitted to Needham Broughton High School.

'BAR' HAD JUST ONE MEANING

LONDON (AP) — The London meeting of the American Bar Assn. contributed mightily last night to an Englishman's understanding of the acid-binding attack on labor columnist Victor Riesel. His trial in the Riesel case has been delayed indefinitely by the refusal of prosecution witnesses to testify.

The U. S. Senate Reelers Committee, waited in the courthouse through the night as the jury considered the case against him and his fellow defendants.

'Staple Gun' Case Proves Mystery

Bald Boy ... 10A
Real Sports ... 5A, 11A
Classified ... 9-11P
Comics ... 8A
Crossword Puzzle ... 10A
Editorials ... 4A
Everyday Counselor ... 10A
Obituaries ... 11A
Radio-TV ... 9B
Serial ... 5A
Sports ... 6-8P
Theaters ... 10A
To Your Good Health ... 12B
Women ... 2-5P
Worship Clinic ... 5P

See Story on Page 3A

The "ordinance is specific," he said. "The house is 12 inches low wide."

After listening sympathetically to Korenic, the suburban Hamtramck City Council last night said it would consider waiving the restriction if the neighbors don't object.

Korenic said the neighbor on one side appeared "a little reluctant" and the other wants to consult an attorney before committing himself.