

WORLD NEWS

Shot Postponed

ATOMIC TEST SITE, Nev.—The Atomic Energy Commission early today postponed for 24 hours the atomic test slated for dawn this morning. Unfavorable winds were blamed for the delay.

Still Missing

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo.—Hopes were today for Mrs. Inestine B. Roberts, 88. She has been missing since Monday on Pikes Peak. Civilians army troops and aircraft joined in the search.

Astor Sued

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla.—Millionaire playboy John Jacob Astor has been sued for an American divorce by the second of his three wives, Gertrude Grodach Astor. She claims a Mexican divorce he obtained from her is not legal.

18 Arrested

BUDAPEST—Hungary's Communist Party newspaper today reported the arrest of former Gen. Gyula Timar and 17 other officers of Hungary's pro-German army of World War II. It said they tried to get jobs with the anti-Soviet rebels last fall during their brief time in power.

Doctors Pleased

WASHINGTON—The White House today said that Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower's doctors "continue to be pleased" with the progress she has made since she underwent an operation Tuesday.

Drink Leads Man Back To Prison

CHICAGO—It was drink that led to 47 years in prison for Herbert Spring and now, after 3 1/2 years freedom, his same weakness is causing the return to a cell.

NO DIFFICULTY

There should be no difficulty about conflict of interests, Russell said. "Of course we will have a bearing to satisfy the committee and the Senate on this point and on his background. He has killed a woman. He entered Stateville prison, Joliet, that same year, sentenced to life imprisonment."

Evening Prayer

Lord, we come to Thee with open hearts to receive Thee and Thy message. Lead us in Thy spirit and growth in love for Thee and knowledge of Thee for that we may be faithful and devoted ambassadors for Christ. In His name. Amen.

Our Weather

Generally fair and a little warmer today, tonight and Friday.

Low this morning	60
High today	64
High tomorrow	68
Low tomorrow	57
High tomorrow	60
Low tomorrow	57
High tomorrow	63
Low tomorrow	57

Speedy Senate Approval Seen For McElroy

WASHINGTON—Sen. McElroy said today that Neil H. McElroy, soap company executive, should win speedy confirmation as secretary of defense.

Senate Vote Returns Bill To House

Special Rights Congress Session Hinted

WASHINGTON—A 72-18 Senate vote returned the civil rights bill to the House today amid reports President Eisenhower will call Congress back in November unless he gets a measure he feels he can sign.

Detonators Go Off

Boston Explosion Damage Is Heavy

BOSTON—A construction project shed containing dynamite cap detonators exploded early today, damaging homes over a mile-square area and endangering thousands of persons.

WINDOWS, PLASTER

Broken windows and fallen plaster were reported in hundreds of residences in the South Boston, Dorchester and Hyde Park districts of Boston, and in Milton, Dedham, Hull and Squantum.

Little Boy Keeps Cool, Is Rescued

ARCATA, Calif.—A little boy who didn't panic although imprisoned 15 feet down in the darkness of a dry well clutched a looped rope and was pulled out safely yesterday on the fourth try.

New Twins Nothing To Cause Excitement

PINE RIDGE, S. D.—Birth of their seventh set of twins in 14 years to the James Big Crow was so routine their father didn't even bother to go to the hospital to pace a corridor.

Leona Fluffs Her Speech With Truth

LAS VEGAS, Nev.—Leona Gage Ennis, the "queen for a day" in the Miss Universe beauty contest apparently meant it when she promised to tell no more falsehoods.

Sen. Russell (Ga.) Won't Even Look At A Copy Of The Civil Rights Bill As He Poses With Sens. O'Mahoney, Anderson

Senate Vote Returns Bill To House

Special Rights Congress Session Hinted

WASHINGTON—A 72-18 Senate vote returned the civil rights bill to the House today amid reports President Eisenhower will call Congress back in November unless he gets a measure he feels he can sign.

Detonators Go Off

Boston Explosion Damage Is Heavy

BOSTON—A construction project shed containing dynamite cap detonators exploded early today, damaging homes over a mile-square area and endangering thousands of persons.

WINDOWS, PLASTER

Broken windows and fallen plaster were reported in hundreds of residences in the South Boston, Dorchester and Hyde Park districts of Boston, and in Milton, Dedham, Hull and Squantum.

Little Boy Keeps Cool, Is Rescued

ARCATA, Calif.—A little boy who didn't panic although imprisoned 15 feet down in the darkness of a dry well clutched a looped rope and was pulled out safely yesterday on the fourth try.

New Twins Nothing To Cause Excitement

PINE RIDGE, S. D.—Birth of their seventh set of twins in 14 years to the James Big Crow was so routine their father didn't even bother to go to the hospital to pace a corridor.

Leona Fluffs Her Speech With Truth

LAS VEGAS, Nev.—Leona Gage Ennis, the "queen for a day" in the Miss Universe beauty contest apparently meant it when she promised to tell no more falsehoods.

Cites 'Aggressive' Plans In Germany

BERLIN—Russian Communist Party Chief Nikita Khrushchev today warned that the explosion of war over Germany would bring the United States under the threat of attack from hydrogen rockets.

First Ground Shots Fired In Rebellion

MANAMA, Bahrain—The first ground shots of the three-week high-level Kremlin-reported fired today at the desert village of Rada.

Confidential's Trial Recesses

LOS ANGELES—Confidential Magazine's own secrets may be exposed when its trial on criminal libel charges is resumed tomorrow.

Welk No Newcomer To Music

See Story on Page 11A

Leona Fluffs Her Speech With Truth

LAS VEGAS, Nev.—Leona Gage Ennis, the "queen for a day" in the Miss Universe beauty contest apparently meant it when she promised to tell no more falsehoods.

Our Weather

Generally fair and a little warmer today, tonight and Friday.

Evening Prayer

Lord, we come to Thee with open hearts to receive Thee and Thy message. Lead us in Thy spirit and growth in love for Thee and knowledge of Thee for that we may be faithful and devoted ambassadors for Christ. In His name. Amen.

Arms Boss Gets Big Pay Cut

CINCINNATI—Neil McElroy gets $25,000 a year for heading 20,000 employees of Procter & Gamble Co., of which he is president. They are scattered all over the world.

Little Boy Keeps Cool, Is Rescued

ARCATA, Calif.—A little boy who didn't panic although imprisoned 15 feet down in the darkness of a dry well clutched a looped rope and was pulled out safely yesterday on the fourth try.

New Twins Nothing To Cause Excitement

PINE RIDGE, S. D.—Birth of their seventh set of twins in 14 years to the James Big Crow was so routine their father didn't even bother to go to the hospital to pace a corridor.