

Established Dec. 8, 1888.

Republic Proclaimed

TANANARIVE, Madagascar — (P) — The local assemblies of this vast French island possession off Africa today proclaimed Madagascar a republic but decided that it would remain a member of the new French community.

Body Found

BUFFALO, N. Y. — (P) — The body of a Niagara Falls man, Arthur de Luce, who police said was a friend of two brothers recently found slain in gangland fashion, was discovered today stuffed into the trunk of his automobile.

Chapel Bombed

ACCRA, Ghana — (P) — A home-made bomb exploded today in the private chapel of the Roman Catholic bishop of Kumasi. It was the fifth such attack on the chapel.

Winter Preview

BOSTON — (P) — New Englanders got a preview of winter today with the coldest weather of the fall season and some snow flurries. The temperature in Boston dipped to 33 degrees. Snow flurries fell in Western Massachusetts.

Back At Post

BREMERTHAVEN, Germany — (P) — One thousand U. S. Army troops returned to Germany today from emergency duty in Lebanon. They were the first group of soldiers to leave Lebanon by ship.

Apartment Fire

PHILADELPHIA — (P) — About 1500 tenants were trapped for a time by fire on upper floors in a West Philadelphia four-story apartment last night. The blaze started in the basement and swept quickly through the building.

Strike Spreads

LONDON — (P) — A wildcat strike at London Airport spread today to 4000 employees and maintenance men of British Overseas Airways Corp., and stopped the airline's services to all parts of the world.

Husband Held

SALT LAKE CITY — (P) — A 22-year-old housewife was found stabbed to death in her apartment yesterday, and police arrested her husband for questioning early today.

GOP Shifts Campaign Strategy

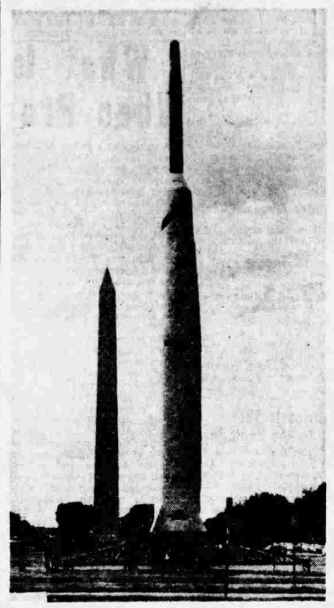

See Labell On Page 7-A

Business	8A-11A
Classified	9-11B
Comics	8A
Crossword Puzzle	4B
Earl Wilson	4B
Editorials	6A
Everyday Counselor	4A
Obituaries	11A
Radio-TV	5B
Serial	12B
Social Security Game	3A
Sports	6-7B
Theater	9B
To Your Good Health	6A
Women	2-3B
Worry Clinic	12B

Our Weather

Fair and slightly warmer today, tonight and Wednesday.
Low tomorrow morning 46
High tomorrow morning 50
High today 79
High yesterday 77
High tomorrow 82
Sunrise today 6:28 a.m.; sunset today 5:50 p.m.

More Weather Data on Page 7-A

Thor Dwarfs Monument

It appears larger and certainly can fly better. But it's just the camera angle which makes this 88-foot model of the Thor rocket appear to dwarf the 555-foot Washington Monument. The model duplicates the one fired toward the moon last Saturday.

Set Nov. 17

Judge Appointed For Boyd Trial

Superior Court Judge Walter J. Bone of Nashville has been named to preside over a special term of Criminal Superior Court here Nov. 17.

Judge Bone, a veteran jurist, was named for the special term by the clerk of the N. C. Supreme Court. Superior Court Clerk J. Lester Wolfe was notified of the appointment yesterday by letter. The special court term has been set for the trial of principals indicted in the City Recorder's Court scandal.

Persons indicted and whose trials probably will begin that week are City Recorder Basil M. Boyd, former Recorder's Court Clerk Allen White and three bondsmen, Leo Reynolds, Bill Bridges and J. H. Branley.

Another development in the Recorder's Court scandal came yesterday in Civil Superior Court. Superior Court Judge Zeb V. Nettles ordered some $9,000 in bonds forfeited by three local bondsmen.

The bonds had been posted in City Recorder's Court for defendants involved in cases there. Reynolds, S. P. Risley and John Poplin had appealed the forfeiture of the bonds from the lower court. Most of the bonds were those found piled up in the city court during the recent investigation and audit.

Judge Nettles cut approximately $3,000 from the amount ordered forfeited by the city court. The $9,000 represents an original $12,000 in bonds.

Attorney Roy B. McKnight Jr. who worked on the cases for the

Nationalists Don't Want Withdrawal

TAIPEI, Formosa — (P) — Indications mounted today that the United States will have a hard time getting Chiang Kaishek to reduce his garrisons on the offshore islands.

The Nationalists reportedly will not consider any single withdrawal unless the United States gives unequivocal guarantees of immediate intervention if the Reds attack the weakened outposts.

The United States has not been willing to do this so far. Washington's idea reportedly is to give Chiang's forces more firepower and better weapons so they can defend the islands with less troops.

This presumably was urged by U. S. Defense Secretary Neil McElroy in two conferences with the Nationalist President recently.

But local newspapers including semiofficial organs continued to denounce the idea of a cut in the offshore garrisons.

McElroy visited military installations in the Pescadore Islands today, between Formosa and the mainland, and then joined the U. S. 7th Fleet en route to Manila.

SKEPTICAL Nationalist officials continued to insist that the Communists would resume hostilities when it suits them. They contended that the Reds had extended their cease-fire for two weeks because they had lost the battle of Quemoy, and any reduction of the island's garrisons would convert a Communist military defeat into a political victory.

Both the Communists and Nationalists continued to strengthen their installations in the Quemoy area.

Associated Press correspondent Gene Kramer reported from the island the Nationalists are rushing to erect a crash program to improve their fortifications and artillery positions. The sound of blasting filled the air.

Kramer said the defenders appeared to be preparing more emplacements for mobile artillery batteries, from which to mass a concentrated bombardment of selected targets if the cease-fire is broken.

The defense ministry in Taipei reported that the Communists also were busily at work on military installations in the area flanking the Quemoy and the Matsus, 150 miles to the north.

Evening Prayer

Greater-God, as Jesus stilled the angry and riot waves on the Sea of Galilee, bringing them into obedience to His holy will, grant us peace, and red let Thy divine majesty and power, through Christ our Lord and Saviour — Amen.

—WOMAN SENTENCED TO DIE— Appeal Filed For Georgian

By HUGH SCHUTTE
MACON, Ga. (AP) — Plump, blonde Anita Donovan Lyles, convicted and sentenced to die for poisoning her daughter, awaited word from her attorneys today on chances for a new trial.

A Bibb County Superior Court jury convicted the 33-year-old widow of murder Monday night. Her attorneys immediately filed notice of appeal, and this automatically stayed the date of execution, which had been set for Dec. 5.

Mrs. Lyles is also accused by the state of poisoning two husbands who had been set for Dec. 5.

The former restaurant owner accepted the death verdict calmly. The only visible reaction was when her alabaster skin reddened and she bit her lip.

Judge Oscar Long set a precedent when he told Mrs. Lyles she might remain seated while sentenced was pronounced.

The courtroom was jammed as it had been every day of the trial. Long set a hearing on the motion for a new trial for Dec. 12.

ANJETTE LYLES

The case was given to the jury at 8:27 p.m. The verdict was announced at 10:30 p.m.—an hour and 41 minutes after the jury began its deliberations.

In an unsigned statement allowed under Georgia law, Mrs. Lyles made a blanket denial of all the state's charges and in the specific case under which she was being tried, that of Marcia, maintained there was no motive.

She said she received only $170 from insurance while her expenses, including hospital bills, special nurses and burial, amounted to $5,900.

"I did not give my child any poison—I did not kill my child," she said.

She acknowledged an abnormal interest in "mediumistic, spiritual advisers and fortune tellers."

She said she burned seven-day candles—green for luck and money, white for peace, and red for love—and once burned a black candle in an attempt to break up a romance between her boy friend, airline pilot Bob Franks, and another girl.

Plans For Destroying Temple Made in May

Attendants Prepare To Lower Casket Into Crypt

Rites Continue

Cardinals Prepare For Papal Election

VATICAN CITY — (P) — Requiem services for Pope Pius XII continued today before a symbolic coffin in St. Peter's Basilica as more cardinals arrived to elect his successor.

The late pontiff of the Roman Catholic Church was buried yesterday in the grotto beneath St. Peter's. An empty coffin was placed in the church for mourning masses that continue through Sunday.

The titular bishop of Adana, Msgr. Diego Venni, stepped before the coffin in the chapel of the church and celebrated today's mass.

Only the Sistine Chapel Choir, members of the Council of the Basilica and a small number of priests were admitted to the chapel for the mass.

Brighter Side

Strategy Wins Over Raw Force

(From AP Reports)
How does one fingerprint a gorilla?

Kansas City zoo officials tried to approach the problem a normal manner with Big Man, but as soon as they put his paw on the ink pad, he jumped up and ran.

So they tried a subtle approach and spread candy about the premises. While Big Man was shoveling it in with one hand, they made prints of the other. The prints were made in case Big Man, worth more than $5,000, ever decides to stray.

Can't Take It

Either the cows can't stand in the way of city expansion, or they can't stand city expansion. At any rate, the Brook Hill Farm dairy, just west of Milwaukee, is disposing of its 496 Holsteins, this in THE dairy state, too.

Howard Greene, Brook Hill head, said "incredible encroachment of the metropolitan area" is too much for the cows.

Come On Over

Misses so say Detroit police, picked a name at random from the telephone book, dialed and offered to sell the woman who answered a lucky number for only $10. Come on over, was the reply. When Miles got to her house, he was arrested by policemen and Nellie Baldwin.

Informant Relates Details Of Meeting

ATLANTA — (P) — A man who said he might be killed for speaking has signed a statement that the dynamiting of the Jewish Temple was planned last May at a meeting of an anti-Semitic organization in East Atlanta.

Police said the informant dictated the statement in the presence of three officers late last night but asked that his name be withheld because his home might be bombed if the underground group learned what he had done.

Sgt. M. W. Blackwell quoted the man saying he attended the meeting at which plans were made for the bombing but that he objected to the use of dynamite and was not invited to attend later sessions.

Between 40 and 50 sticks of dynamite were set off early Sunday against a wall of the temple on Peachtree Rd. Damage was estimated at $200,000.

The informant said that one member of the group who had worked as an architect drew plans of the temple showing exactly where the explosive was to be placed. He said the dynamite was to have been obtained from Harlan, Ky., and set off by a man brought from Birmingham, Ala.

Police said the man's statement might prove to be the first real break in the investigation of bombings of Jewish structures in the south.

FBI agents joined with state and Atlanta authorities and with police from neighboring states in probing every angle of the statement.

The name of the anti-Semitic organization was not made public but police said they were told they had never members in every major southern city.

FOUR PICKED UP

Detective Capt. R. E. Little said four persons had been picked up on holding charges of suspicion of vagrancy and were still being questioned.

In New York, Henry E. Schultz, national chairman of the B'nai B'rith anti-Defamation League, said a list of anti-Semitic exiles would be turned over to Atlanta police.

Schultz said the league's investigations of similar incidents in Nashville, Miami and Jacksonville indicated the bombings "may be the work of a group of old-line anti-Semitic agitators who have drawn in younger and more daring recruits."

Dr. Maurice N. Eisenrath of New York, president of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, called on President Eisenhower to convene a special White House governors' conference "to dramatize the disastrous national and international effects of continued defiance of lawful processes."

Eugene Cardinal Tisserant, Dean of the College of Cardinals, replied.

On Sunday, when the nine-day mourning period ends, the cardinals will receive special envoys of foreign governments paying their respects to the late pope. The U. S. envoys will be Secretary of State Dulles, former ambassador to Italy (Clare Boothe Luce) and John A. McCone, director of the Atomic Energy Commission.

Polio In Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — Three new polio cases were reported in Detroit Monday and 13 others in neighboring Wayne County.

The epidemic has struck 573 persons in Detroit and taken 19 lives thus far this year. The outcome total now is 182.

In an effort to fight the epidemic, the city-county board of health has recommended a $600,000 program to give every school child and preschool youngster low cost Salk polio shots.

CAMP CARETAKER SLAIN—

Nudists Sought In Slaying

FRESNO, Calif. (AP) — A nudist camp couple was sought today as suspects in the murder of a camp caretaker.

All-points bulletin went out Monday night for Jack and Sue Patterson, aged 35 and 42, suspected of fleeing in the 1947 Plymouth coupe which belonged to the dead man, Guy P. Brennan. He was 39-year-old former railway worker and World War I veteran who worked as a handyman at the Clympus nudist camp 25 miles northeast of here.

Brennan was found Monday morning by Logan Bachar, operator of the camp. An autopsy showed he died of a fractured skull caused by two blows from some heavy metal instrument.

Sheriff's Sergeants Leo Clapp and Joseph Quick said Bachar gave them this account:— The Pattersons showed up at the camp Oct. 2 to visit Brennan, whom they reportedly had met on a bus trip from Ogden, Utah, last month. When they failed to locate friends they said lived in Fresno, they registered at the camp and moved into a rooming man's cottage with him.

REFINED PEOPLE Last Thursday night the three visited with Bachar in his cottage. Bachar said the Pattersons seemed "nice and refined." He didn't know where they came from.

Friday morning the three were not to be seen and Brennan's car was gone, so he entered Brennan's cabin to feed his parakeet and water some house plants. He saw nothing wrong, but when they hadn't returned Friday night he called police to Clovis to see if there had been a possible accident.

Monday Bachar again entered the cabin. This time he found Brennan's body under the bed, nude.