Charlottean, Pals Missing in Ocean

—HAPPY HOLLOW NOT ALL HAPPY— Will Frieda, Love Find Way?

SEVERVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Their marriage plans thwarted by lawmen in two states, a 33-year-old minister faces preliminary hearing today on a charge of kidnaping an 11-year-old mountain girl.

The Rev. G. W. Rollins, who said he was ordained as a Baptist minister in March, 1952, is accused of abducting Frieda Ogle from her home in nearby Happy Hollow.

Police said their romance blossomed after Rollins came to the Smoky Mountains community five months ago as pastor of Friendship Baptist Church.

lins en route and brought him here.

Ogle swore out the warrant against Rollins, accusing him of kidnaping by taking a female under 12 years of age from her parents and taking her out of the state into the state of Georgia.

Rollins' wife of 16 years divorced him about two months ago, accusing him of non-support. They had five children, three boys and two girls, ranging from four to 14 years.

The preacher told newsmen Frieda "look a liking" to him about a month ago and suggested marriage.

LICENSE DENIED

As reconstructed by authorities in Tennessee and Georgia, Rollins and Frieda went to Georgia Friday to get married. Clerks in several Georgia towns denied them a license because of a three-day waiting period and they went on to Atlanta.

Rollins took Frieda to the home of an aunt in Atlanta Friday and returned early Sunday to pick up clothes for himself and the girl.

But Tennessee officers arrested Rollins.

"MORE OR LESS"

Last Tuesday he continued, he had lunch at the Ogle home and they "more or less agreed" to marry.

"She said again she wanted to marry me," Rollins related. "I told her she was too young and it wouldn't do. Then she said I didn't want her, and I agreed to marry her."

An Atlanta detention home, Frieda said: "We'd been planning this a long time. I love him and I intend to marry him."

China Reds Break Ceasefire; Dulles Calls Action Tragedy

By GENE KRAMER

(AP) — The Chinese Reds broke their cease fire on the Korean peninsula today, sending Quemoy for nearly three hours and then turning their fire on Taiwan itself.

On his way here for important talks, Secretary of State Dulles said it was a tragedy the Communists had again displayed their "warlike disposition." He made the statement during a refueling stop for his jet tanker at Fairbanks, Alaska.

The Nationalists on Quemoy, amply supplied during the nearly 15-day cease fire, returned the Red fire. The Communist artillery caught four Nationalist supply ships in the Quoyen beach area, three LSTs and one Navy transport. There was no word on whether any were hit.

There was no immediate word on the volume of Red fire or on the Nationalist retaliation.

The abrupt development raised grave new problems for U. S. Secretary of State Dulles, flying by jet tanker over the north polar route to Formosa. His mission was to clear up misunderstandings with Nationalist Premier Chiang Kai-shek and lay the base for a more substantial cease-fire in Formosa Strait.

Red Chinese Defense Minister Peng Teh-huai gave as his reason for resuming the bombardment a charge that U. S. warships had encroached on Chinese territorial waters last night in escorting nationalistic ships to Quemoy.

"Shelling must therefore be resumed as a measure of punishment," the Communist order said.

LONG BOMBARDMENT

The Red jets blitzed Quemoy for 2 hours and 45 minutes, then halted. Eighty minutes later, they opened up on Taitan, a 36-acre island 2 1/2 miles south of Amoy.

The Chinese Communists said they were suspending their cease-fire—scheduled to end next Sunday—because U. S. warships had convoyed Nationalist supply vessels to Quemoy, U. S. officials denied it.

A Nationalist spokesman said no American ships were in the beach area. The Communists in ending the cease-fire had charged U. S. warships had broken the truce by escorting Nationalist supplies to Quemoy last night. The Americans flatly denied this, saying they had only "conducted a small boat operation" — lifting the cease-fire had charged U. S. warships had broken the truce by escorting Nationalist supplies to Quemoy last night. The Nationalist Defense Ministry said the Communists resumed shelling at 4 p.m., 30 minutes after Peiping Radio broadcast orders cancelling the cease-fire. The Communists announced a week ago that their self-imposed truce had been extended to midnight next Sunday.

Parties Step Up Campaign Tempo

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

President Eisenhower carried his election efforts toward California today while other campaigners argued about his foreign policy and its place in the political debate.

A stepped-up weekend tempo also found Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler virtually ignoring those Democrats who disagree sharply with the party's civil rights program to get out of the Democratic party. He said they could "take political asylum" in the Republican Party or a third party.

GOP ACTIVE

With the congressional election campaign moving into its final few weeks, Eisenhower speaks tonight in Los Angeles and Tuesday night in San Francisco in what the White House said would be a hard-hitting explanation of Republican accomplishments.

Former President Harry S. Truman and Vice President Nixon resumed their campaign activities Tuesday in the East after a weekend of rest for each.

Adlai Stevenson, twice the Democratic presidential nominee, called U. S. policy toward the Nationalist Chinese islands of Quemoy and Matsu "this miserable mess."

Speaking in Milwaukee Saturday night, he said, "We have had almost four years of grace over the last crisis of Quemoy to extricate ourselves. Instead we have brought up Chiang Kai-shek to bring us closer to war, to imperil the prestige and the peace of the United States over little islands, which in the long run are untenable."

Both Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles had said they thought foreign policy should not be a subject of partisan debate, though each left some loopholes and later approved Nixon's action in attacking Democratic critics.

Truman said in Washington Friday he is glad that Eisenhower now "is agreed with me" that foreign affairs should not be a campaign issue.

Butler, questioned about his comments on civil rights during the television interview, said they applied specifically to Gov. Orval E. Faubus of Arkansas and also to Sen. James O. Eastland of Mississippi. He felt the same way.

He said the Democratic party would welcome as many Americans as possible, but added that "if they don't want to go along on the racial problem and the whole area of human rights, then I think they are going to have to take political asylum wherever they can find it, either in the Republican party or a third party."

4 Weekend Fishermen Are Hunted

By JOHN KILGO News Staff Writer

A Charlotte man and three fishing companions from Lancaster, S. C., were reported missing today in rough waters near Georgetown, S. C.

The four men left early Saturday on a fishing trip and were due to arrive in Lancaster yesterday around 2 p.m. A helicopter is searching for them.

Acting Police Chief E. C. Selvey of Charlotte said Georgetown police told him two cars driven to Georgetown by the four men have been found at the Fairy Boat Landing there.

W. G. Bullard, 336 Sedgefield Rd., is the Charlotte man reported missing.

W. S. Howell Jr. and Ned Weisner of Lancaster are also missing. The third man from Lancaster was not immediately identified.

All four were to report to their jobs this morning.

Chief Selvey said Georgetown police told him the Coast Guard will be asked to join in the search. The Georgetown police had to send to Myrtle Beach for helicopters because the waters were too rough to conduct a search in boats.

The men put to sea in two boats, police said.

Chief Selvey said the Coast Guard husband was expected home last night around 8 or 9 o'clock.

"SOMETHING WRONG"

"I think something must be wrong," she said, "or my husband would have called me by now. He's not the kind of man to leave me sitting here worried to death for 48 hours."

Mrs. Bullard said it is possible her husband and the other men made it to an island and the waters were too rough to get back to shore.

"All of the men were supposed to be back at work this morning," she said. "One of the men from Lancaster was supposed to be at work at 4 a.m."

"One of the men from Lancaster called his home Saturday afternoon and said they would be back in Lancaster at 2 p.m. yesterday."

Mrs. Bullard said her husband went on a fishing trip last weekend at Myrtle Beach, S. C.

NOT A WORD

Mrs. Sewell said she hasn't heard a word about her husband's whereabouts.

"We know that they found the two cars down at Georgetown. The Coast Guard is looking for the men," she said.

Three-Way Bus Talks Planned

A five-man mayor's committee was to meet today at 3 p.m. with representatives of union and management in an effort to seek a solution to the 20-day-old Charlotte City Coach Co. bus strike.

Plans for the meeting were not definite, however.

The committee, named Saturday by Mayor James Smith to work with the wrangling parties, includes the mayor, Councilman Claude Alben, Dr. E. H. Garinger, Sutton Brown and Chamber of Commerce President Thomas L. Robinson.

There were no joint meetings of union company and mediators Sunday.

Separate conferences were held yesterday with company and union representatives, however, as federal mediator Yates Heaster continued to seek a contract agreement that would end the strike of drivers and mechanics.

The separate conferences failed to produce agreement.

Mayor Smith today said he would like to clarify the position of Boyd Payton in his bus strike talks.

Mrs. Payton, southern director and international vice president of the Textile Workers Union of America, joined a citizens committee at his request, Mayor Smith said.

He is a resident of Charlotte and is acting as labor advisor. His services have been well received by both sides, Mayor Smith said.

25 Years For Spough

By JOHN BORCHERT News Religion Editor

"My column is a thousand times more effective than I ever thought it would be. In fact, I feel it is the most important part of my ministry."

The column is "The Everyday Counselor." The speaker is the author, Dr. Walter Herbert Spough, minister of the Moravian Little Church on the Lane here.

This week marks the 25th anniversary of the appearance of Dr. Spough as a columnist for "Mornings of a Minister."

During those years the column, like Charlotte, has grown. It started as a weekly, by "Mornings of a Minister," then appeared twice a week, and finally moved to its daily status.

Familiar Byline Has A Birthday

Dr. Spough, however, added, "I wouldn't do it until they allowed me to get 30 written up ahead."

"Until that time," mused Dr. Spough, "the only writing I had done were a few English theme papers in college and some letters I wrote my father which said, 'Send more money.'"

The first column was about the Moravian church. That Dr. Spough can remember. But since then there have been thousands of columns. Some are all on file in his offices.

There came a need for the column to increase from its twice weekly appearance to a daily column.

Dr. Griffith and J. E. Dowd were working with me on the column and they wanted something to reach the man in the street who didn't go to church. 'Don't you worry about the church people,' they told me, 'the preachers will take care of them.'"

The name, "Everyday Counselor" was decided upon by Brodie S. Griffith, now general manager of The News, to write such a column.

"But," protested Dr. Spough, "I don't know anything about newspaper writing."

"Well, touch you," replied Mr. Griffith.

"Which is what they did."

AA PROGRAM

Dr. Spough calls his column "a newspaper's pulpit." The counseling I do stems from it." And from that column also grew the Alcoholics Anonymous program in Charlotte.

It was in 1933 that Dr. Spough was asked by Brodie S. Griffith, now general manager of The News, to write such a column.

"But," protested Dr. Spough, "I don't know anything about newspaper writing."

"Well, touch you," replied Mr. Griffith.

"Which is what they did."

POLIO TOTAL 395

DETROIT (AP) — Three new polio cases were reported in Detroit over the weekend, boosting the city's total this year to 395, with 18 deaths.

—POP DOESN'T PLAN ANY MORE— Quads Born To Virginians

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — A wife of a 365-a-week paper employee gave birth to quadruplets at a Richmond hospital today.

Hospital spokesmen said the children are alive and apparently well. They are in incubators.

The quadruplets, two boys and two girls, were born to Mrs. Laura Englehart, 34, of near-by Sandston. She has six other children, three by a previous marriage.

Edward G. Englehart, the father, 32, is a heavy-duty sweeper operator with the Richmond Public Works Dept.

Englehart said he took his wife to Johnston-Willis hospital yesterday about 9:45 p.m. He remained at this hospital until 3 a.m. today and received word of the births after reporting for work.

The Engleharts were married five years ago. They also have two sons, Kathleen and Josephine, 4, and another daughter, Mary, 2. Mrs. Englehart's other children are Frederick, 5; Beverly, 9; and Marie, 10.

$58.50 A WEEK

Englehart said he has a take home pay of about $115 a week — after deductions for retirement and Social Security but not including his income taxes. The family lives in a three-bedroom home owned by his father.

"We were expecting twins but four came as quite a surprise," admitted the proud father who said he'd have to "do something about" additional housing. He said the present house may have to be enlarged.

Englehart told a newsmen he did not anticipate any further additions to the family.

The quadruplets weighed in at: Boy A, 2 pounds 11 1/2 ounces; boy B, 3 pounds 7 ounces, and the girls, 4 pounds each.

Quads last were born in Richmond to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Shain in March, 1856. All are boys.
