

THE CHARLOTTE NEWS PINK FINAL

Largest Evening Newspaper In The Two Carolinas Charlotte, North Carolina, Monday, September 22, 1958

Established Dec. 8, 1888.

26 Pages — Price Five Cents

TV Speech At 5:35 P.M.

GRAHAM RESOLUTION AWAITS

The Graham Humor Billy's Stories Tickle Crowd

By DICK YOUNG JR. News Staff Writer The famous Billy Graham humor bubbled as usual during yesterday's opening service in the Charlotte Crusade.

See BILLY'S on page 8-A

8 Negroes Return To High School

By ASSOCIATED PRESS Eight Negroes returned to classes in the Van Buren, Ark., high school Monday with only mild demonstrations from white students who had threatened to walk out.

Ike, Adams Following Conference

Ike's Aide Refuses To Comment On Talk

WASHINGTON — Presidential assistant Sherman Adams, amid rumors of a resignation, arranged to speak to the nation by radio and television at 6:35 p.m. EDT. He will have 10 minutes on the air.

Lawyer Asks Freedom For Accused Lad

NEW YORK — In a surprise court move, an attorney today demanded release from custody of Melvin Nimer Jr., the 8-year-old boy who has told officials many conflicting stories about the knife-slashing of his parents.

A Familiar Graham Gesture; Finger Raised Heavenward

Graham Will Tell Audience What's Wrong With Church

(More news and pictures of Billy Graham Crusade on pages 8A, 9A, 1-B and 14-B.) By JOHN BORCHERT News Religion Editor Dr. Billy Graham will continue his battle against complacency among Christians tonight in the second meeting of his planned four-week evangelistic crusade at the Charlotte Coliseum.

8 Negroes Return To High School

Some white boys who had threatened to boycott classes Monday if the Negroes entered, joined other students in the building when the bell rang.

7 UN Nations Back Red China

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — India and six other Asian-African nations formally called on the U.N. General Assembly today to reverse a decision of the powerful steering committee and to consider the seating of Red China now.

Social Security Appeals Stalled

WASHINGTON — The Social Security Administration today said it has a backlog of 16,244 appeals awaiting hearing though it has increased its staff of referees from 17 to 101 in the last two years.

Civil Rights Stand Blasted

PHILADELPHIA — President Eisenhower's position on civil rights was described today as a "sad and shameful episode in American history" by two top officials of the International Union of Electrical Workers.

Ike's Vacation Nears End

NEWPORT, R. I. — President Eisenhower will end his Newport vacation tomorrow. It began Aug. 29, Eisenhower will fly to Washington tomorrow to be host at a stag luncheon for the foreign ministers of 20 Latin American nations.

Ford Plant Struck Again

DETROIT — A strike of skilled tradesmen over wage provisions in a new United Auto Workers contract tripled production again today at the Ford Motor Co.'s huge River Rouge plant.

FBI Reveals Extortion Plot

CHICAGO — A plot to extort $25,000 from the owner of a plush suburban restaurant was described today by the FBI, which arrested one man in a payoff trap.

Jets Gun Fishermen In Error

VALETTEA, Malta — Four U.S. jet fighters machine-gunned fishermen on a Malta beach which they had mistaken for a gunnery range, a statement from the governor's palace said today. Three Maltese fishermen escaped injury.

U.S. Plane Said Over China

LONDON — Peiping Radio charged that a U.S. plane "intruded over the Chinese mainland" today. The broadcast mentioned the plane in giving the Communist government's "10th serious warning."

New SC Slaying Trial Granted

COLUMBIA — The South Carolina Supreme Court today granted a new trial to Fred S. Livingston, convicted of murdering his wife in Orangeburg last year.

GM, Chrysler Resume Talks

DETROIT — General Motors and Chrysler, both strike targets for the United Auto Workers Union, resumed bargaining with the UAW today in efforts to reach new contracts and head off any walkouts.

BULLETINS

John L. Lewis Wins Boost

WASHINGTON — John L. Lewis today won a boost in the miners wage rate required for government-produced coal. At the same time he was reported near terms for a new industry-wide contract.

7 UN Nations Back Red China

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — India and six other Asian-African nations formally called on the U.N. General Assembly today to reverse a decision of the powerful steering committee and to consider the seating of Red China now.

Social Security Appeals Stalled

WASHINGTON — The Social Security Administration today said it has a backlog of 16,244 appeals awaiting hearing though it has increased its staff of referees from 17 to 101 in the last two years.

Civil Rights Stand Blasted

PHILADELPHIA — President Eisenhower's position on civil rights was described today as a "sad and shameful episode in American history" by two top officials of the International Union of Electrical Workers.

Ike's Vacation Nears End

NEWPORT, R. I. — President Eisenhower will end his Newport vacation tomorrow. It began Aug. 29, Eisenhower will fly to Washington tomorrow to be host at a stag luncheon for the foreign ministers of 20 Latin American nations.

Ford Plant Struck Again

DETROIT — A strike of skilled tradesmen over wage provisions in a new United Auto Workers contract tripled production again today at the Ford Motor Co.'s huge River Rouge plant.

FBI Reveals Extortion Plot

CHICAGO — A plot to extort $25,000 from the owner of a plush suburban restaurant was described today by the FBI, which arrested one man in a payoff trap.

Jets Gun Fishermen In Error

VALETTEA, Malta — Four U.S. jet fighters machine-gunned fishermen on a Malta beach which they had mistaken for a gunnery range, a statement from the governor's palace said today. Three Maltese fishermen escaped injury.

U.S. Plane Said Over China

LONDON — Peiping Radio charged that a U.S. plane "intruded over the Chinese mainland" today. The broadcast mentioned the plane in giving the Communist government's "10th serious warning."

New SC Slaying Trial Granted

COLUMBIA — The South Carolina Supreme Court today granted a new trial to Fred S. Livingston, convicted of murdering his wife in Orangeburg last year.

GM, Chrysler Resume Talks

DETROIT — General Motors and Chrysler, both strike targets for the United Auto Workers Union, resumed bargaining with the UAW today in efforts to reach new contracts and head off any walkouts.

Lawyer Asks Freedom For Accused Lad

NEW YORK — In a surprise court move, an attorney today demanded release from custody of Melvin Nimer Jr., the 8-year-old boy who has told officials many conflicting stories about the knife-slashing of his parents.

Villages Wrecked

TEHRAN, Iran — Severe earthquakes are reported to have wrecked at least seven villages around Karsar in Iran.

Schools In Little Rock Open Monday

LEXINGTON, Ky. — Gov. Orval Faubus said today he plans to reopen the Little Rock high schools next Monday, or as soon as possible thereafter, presumably as private institutions.

Private Institutions

He said the federal government would bring legal action to block his plan "and if they do it will be their responsibility for keeping the schools closed longer."

Read Inside Stories On Grid Upsets

SPORTS PAGES, 2-4B

Evening Prayer

Our heavenly Father, we thank Thee for the teachings we received from Thee through our parents. We thank Thee that we have been taught to love Thy Church. Teach us to love increasingly the fellowship of Thy children. In Christ's name . . . Amen.

Big Damages Awarded

LINCOLN — A Lincoln County jury awarded $10,000 to J. B. Neal for personal injuries, and to Charlie Neal $250 injuries, against Wayne Grigg, Plato Jenkins, and Paul Mauney.

Rebels Claim Advances In Middle Of Cuba

HAVANA, Cuba — Rebel broadcasts today claimed a third column of insurgent forces has advanced into Las Cañitas Province in the heart of Cuba. The rebels said the contingent was led by Dr. Ernesto Guevara, an Argentine.

Rebels Claim Advances In Middle Of Cuba

ported 15 government soldiers killed and 10 captured in a clash near Yara in western Oriente Province. The rebels said they just two killed and one wounded.

Rebels Claim Advances In Middle Of Cuba

The rebels claimed they were disrupting highway communications in Oriente, Camaguey and Las Cañitas by destroying bridges and shooting attacks on buses.

Rebels Claim Advances In Middle Of Cuba

A bomb explosion wrecked the main electoral office in western Pinar del Rio Province and wounded one man. Another bomb exploded in the railroad yard wounding six persons, including two children.