VICKI STILL ENJOYS FREEDOM

Circus Expert Leads Search for Elephant
CHARLOTTE, N.C. (CP) — An old hand from the Ringling Bros. and Barnum and Bailey Circus Saturday took over direction of the hunt for elephant Vicki but Vicki wasn't to be found.
Louie Reed, head elephant trainer for the circus, arrived here by plane from California after a stopover at Ringling's winter quarters in Sarasota, Fla.

LOCAL NEWS BRIEFS

A Victoria boy, A. H. Green, 1906 Bentley, is among 200 soldier apprentices from B.C. beginning a two-year training program this month offering schooling, general military education and army tradesman classification.
He left at the weekend for Barnfield, Ont. Royal Canadian Corps of Signals School.
A total 117 soldier tradesmen have graduated from similar courses, 500 others are now in training.

STRIKE CHANCE 'SLIGHT' AMONG POWER MEN

Chances of a strike among 150 power plant employees in 25 B.C. sawmills are slight, according to a CCLC spokesman.
Vancouver and Victoria locals of the Operating Engineers' Union (AFL) have applied for a government-supervised strike vote. They turned down a conciliatory report offering employees the same terms accepted by 32,000 International Woodworkers of America (CIO-CIL) members in B.C. in a two-year contract earlier this year.
The spokesman, a member of the IWA, said woodworkers would honor AFL picket lines if the operating engineers did strike.

HIT-RUN BRINGS FINE OF $35

San Homer Campbell, 5038 Wesley, was fined $35 or five days in jail and restricted to driving for business only for one month when he pleaded guilty at Royal Oak while filing rapidly, has a great deal of property to develop adjoining the present Royal Oak cemetery.
The mayor added that a private concern has been in negotiation with the city for a section of the city-owned Ed. Lake Game Farm for a cemetery.
Greater Victoria board of cemetery trustees resolved a grave income from sale of cemetery plots and burials last year of $62,133. Crematorium has accounted for another $18,023 in revenue.
When expenses were deducted a total of $1,897 was transferred to the cemetery trustees surplus fund. It now totals $14,883.

RED CHINA RELEASES FOUR MISSIONARIES

HONG KONG (Reuters)—Four American missionaries emerged from two years' captivity in Communist China Sunday, raising to seven the number of Americans released under the agreement reached by the Chinese and Americans in Geneva earlier this month.
Fathers Frederick D. Gordon, of Somerset, Ohio; Joseph E. Hyde, of Lowell, Mass.; James G. Joyce, of Clinton, and Levi Lovgren, of Seattle, Wash., appeared pale but hearty.
The three priests refused to say whether they had confessed to the sabotage charges for which they were kept under house arrest. Mr. Lovgren said he had signed a fake spy confession and later repudiated it.

RUSS CHIEFS SMILE — BUT STICK WITH MARX

MOSCOW (UP) — Soviet Communist Party chief Nikita S. Khrushchev smiled Saturday night that the smiles of Russian leaders since the Geneva conference do not mean they have abandoned Communist policy.
"Those who expect this to happen might just as well wait for a shrimp to learn how to whistle," Khrushchev said.
Khrushchev made the remark at a 3 1/2-hour reception in honor of the visiting East German delegation following the start of talks here Saturday.
It was the longest diplomatic reception at the Kremlin in recent years.
Khrushchev declared, "It is said that the Soviet leaders smile. This is a real smile. It is not false.
"We want to live in peace and tranquility," he added.
"But if anyone thinks that our smiles mean the abandonment of the teachings of Marx, Engels and Lenin he is kidding himself cruelly," Khrushchev said.
Soviet Premier Nikolai A. Bulganin, East German Premier Otto Grotewohl and his deputy, Walter Ulbricht, all spoke at considerable length and in a confident mood.
They all made it clear that Russia does not intend to abandon its East German allies following the talks here with West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.
Khrushchev helped emphasize the point by publicly kissing the goateed Ulbricht, who is head of the Communist party in East Germany, and giving him a bear hug.
Before the reception began, East German Communist party secretary-general Otto Nuschke set the theme for the talks by declaring, with Soviet backing, that West Germany would have to negotiate with East Germany if it wants the country reunited.

40 Countries Represented In Photography Salon Here

Exhibits from 40 countries are expected for the 15th Victoria International Salon of Photography, to be held at the Arts Centre, Nov. 13 to 20.
Deadline for entries is Oct. 15.
More than 1,500 photographic prints and an equal number of color transparencies will be displayed, salon director, James McVie, said.
The show is the largest of its kind in Canada.
Entries have been received from England, Hong Kong, the United States, France, Belgium, Sweden, Holland, Czechoslovakia, Vietnam, Denmark and South Africa.
Judges of prints will be Colin Graham, curator, the Arts Centre, Hale Van Scoy, Yakima, Wash., and Chao-Chen Yang, Seattle, Wash. Judging color transparencies will be Mr. Yang, Dr. John Tedford, Vancouver and Edward Goodall, Victoria.
McVie, said.
