

Arson After Sheriff's Home Destroyed

Officer's House Burns; Received Anonymous Threats

CHARLOTTE, N.C.—Five or six days after the receipt of anonymous threats, the home of Sheriff Paul M. Dale, who estimated at $10,000, was destroyed by fire.

"It was the second time this year that the home had caught fire. On Jan. 1, Sheriff Dale received an anonymous threat for his and federal officers' activities in connection with raising heretofore, he said, and within 24 hours the home was destroyed by flames.

Yesterday morning, much of the new home was destroyed by fire. The fire was caused by a gas leak from the furnace, the family planned to move in today.

Although Dale said he had received no recent threatening notes, he mentioned a clue or two that led to the theory of incendiary arson. A screen door, near a hatch, had been cut. Dale said, and firemen told him they found a five-penny candle of what may have been an inflammable liquid.

Air Base Officers:

Here are others in a daily series of brief biographical sketches of Army officers on duty at the Charlotte Air Base. The News is pleased to present these sketches as one means of making the residents of Charlotte better acquainted with the City's newly arrived residents who wear the Army uniform and desire to become a helpful part of our community life.

First Lieutenant Joseph K. Hamblen, Air Corps, is assistant adjutant and personnel adjutant of the Charlotte Air Base. He is a native of Alabama, a graduate of the University of Georgia, and a member of the Air Corps since 1928. He was transferred to the Charlotte Air Base in 1938. He and Miss Harriette Barber of Anderson, S. C., were married in 1934. They have two children, each a girl.
