Soviet Jets Rising With The Dawn
Symbolize Nasser's Grip On Egypt

By CECIL PRICE
Editor, The News

CAIRO, Egypt. ELECTION day dawned in Egypt to the tune of Russian-built jets...

In a few hours they were back, flashing across the far horizon in tight formation...

The planes were MIG-15 fighters, gifts of the Soviet Union to the Egyptian Air Force...

As a free election, the voting for members of the new National Assembly was little more than a farce...

True, any and all interested candidates for parliamentary seats were invited to stand for election...

The ruling clique's hope is to bring about the election of an assembly with the double expectation that the victors will carry on the revolution...

Infant districts there was no competition. All of the old political parties have been abolished...

Protecting American interests in Egypt now is one of the nation's ablest career diplomats, Raymond A. Hare...

Our basic interest here is an area interest, he said today. It is important from the American point of view...

It is not that Americans are terribly unpopular here with the man in the street. They are still treated courteously...

Egypt is still the kingdom of the Arab world in terms of individual strength. Cairo commands the biggest Arab army...

Adjutant General & Political Fragrance
There is an odor of politics in Gov. Hodges' appointment of Capus Waynick as adjutant general...

Human blessings continue in these modern times. But there are many who refuse to add paper towels and paper napkins to the list...

Some of the people who make such a fuss about their wonderful sun tans don't have enough sense to come in out of the rain...

Warren Cleared Way For Nixon Ambition
The nomination of Warren was done no doubt to clear him as a road block to the Nixon trek to the White House...

Gen. Sarnoff Talks On 'Greatest Age'
When I entered his office, Gen. David Sarnoff, chairman of the Radio Corporation of America...

People's Platform
The nomination of Warren was done no doubt to clear him as a road block to the Nixon trek to the White House...

WASHINGTON
SENATE Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson, probably the most effective congressional leader of this generation...

A Bad Loser Aims Gripes At Machines

By ROBERT C. RUARK

PALAMOS, Spain. I SEE by the leaders that an IBM computing machine can track earth satellites...

At this moment, in my house, there are three record players, all busted. There are two fancy radios which have never worked...

For 20 odd years I have played a typewriter for my bread and beans, and I still can't change a ribbon without severely wounding myself...

Lights I turn on go out. I once counted 12 water faucets that never kept time. Doors slam me. Once I tried to cook on an outdoor barbecue...

Other people open bottles with ease, but it seems to me that every bottle I ever tackled was permanently sealed to keep me from the evils of drink...

The evil of the machine age — and I won't even mention the tele- vision that has invaded our lives...

Whiteville
THE statement attributed to our reasonable, tolerant and just President that he had carefully screened all of his nominees...

Another phenomenon of the era is the obvious fact, as stated by Sen. Russell, that the press of this country — including, yes, some North Carolina newspapers...

The nomination of Warren was done no doubt to clear him as a road block to the Nixon trek to the White House...

When I entered his office, Gen. David Sarnoff, chairman of the Radio Corporation of America...

Girard Case: Lots Of Talk And No Action

By DORIS FLEESON

THE Supreme Court did not say that the United States must do a simple majority vote in the Capitol Hill that somehow, in ways no one can predict, he will emerge from the civil rights crisis with a reasonable future...

The court said that the American agreements with Japan were made and that American officials did not abuse their discretion when they decided as they did...

Sen. John W. Bricker (R-Ohio) and others rightly contend that the President is exceeding his constitutional powers in making agreements of this type and should be sharply held to account by Congress...

Foreign affairs generally, as in this case, offer a field in which the division of responsibility between a Republican President and a Democratic Congress is working...

Rep. Frank T. Bow (Ohio) is the author of a specific statute to repeal the status-of-forces treaties, which has been quietly pigeonholed, at least temporarily, by House leaders...

Undersecretary of State Christian A. Herter opened a hearing before the Women's National Press Club with an expression of relief over the court's Girard decision...

With disarmament prospects dimming, the United States must, to its allies and potential allies everywhere, take a stand on the status-of-forces agreements as seriously as Bow, as they make abundantly clear to the President and State Department...
