

U.S. Rules Out Ground War For U. S. Forces In Europe

Ike Won't Talk About Nuclear Weapons Use

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today the United States has no intention of fighting a ground war in Europe.

At a news conference, however, he declined to say flatly that nuclear weapons would be used by American forces in the event the Soviets start shooting.

He said firmly the United States will do whatever needs to be done to protect its rights and responsibilities in West Berlin.

This government, he said, will never back up in the face of Soviet pressure the threat of a ground war.

At the same time he said the free world is not going to become hysterical and go off half-cocked over the Berlin crisis.

Eisenhower said he believes the American public is more soberly aware of dangers in the Berlin situation than a lot of people around Washington.

A reporter had asked the President if he feels that the people recognize the dangers in Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's demand for the withdrawal of Allied troops from West Berlin by May 27.

The President replied with some asperity that he doesn't ever expect to be in the business of reacting instantly to one of Mr. Khrushchev's wisecracks or whatever the Soviet Premier calls them.

The President's reply was interpreted as a rebuff to the question of whether the United States would use nuclear weapons.

Eisenhower was asked for his reaction to Khrushchev's proposal for a four-power guard in West Berlin.

The President said he was not sure he would accept such a proposal, but he said he would be glad to discuss it.

Eisenhower was asked if he thought the Soviet proposal was a genuine offer of peace.

He said he was not sure, but he said he would be glad to discuss it.

Eisenhower was asked if he thought the Soviet proposal was a genuine offer of peace.

He said he was not sure, but he said he would be glad to discuss it.

Eisenhower was asked if he thought the Soviet proposal was a genuine offer of peace.

He said he was not sure, but he said he would be glad to discuss it.

Eisenhower was asked if he thought the Soviet proposal was a genuine offer of peace.

He said he was not sure, but he said he would be glad to discuss it.

Eisenhower was asked if he thought the Soviet proposal was a genuine offer of peace.

He said he was not sure, but he said he would be glad to discuss it.

Eisenhower was asked if he thought the Soviet proposal was a genuine offer of peace.

He said he was not sure, but he said he would be glad to discuss it.

Eisenhower was asked if he thought the Soviet proposal was a genuine offer of peace.

He said he was not sure, but he said he would be glad to discuss it.

Eisenhower was asked if he thought the Soviet proposal was a genuine offer of peace.

He said he was not sure, but he said he would be glad to discuss it.

Middle U. S. Is Lashed By Hail And Snow

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

More snow spread into the winter-weary sections of the Midwest today as a storm center in the southern plains kicked up violent wind, rain and hail storms in southern parts of the mid-continent.

The Weather Bureau forecast four inches or more of snow across a wide area from the central plains eastward into sections of the Mississippi valley and the southern Great Lakes region.

A rash of heavy thunderstorms swept areas in eastern Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas and western Missouri during the night. The hail pelted areas in northeastern Texas and Oklahoma.

Hail storms in Oklahoma, east of Dallas and in the Muskogean region of Alabama, east of Fort Worth, hail at one street intersection was piled 14 inches deep.

Unofficial damage estimates at Fort Worth were more than one million dollars. Five persons were injured there, none seriously.

The only death blamed on the weather came at Greenville, northeast of Dallas, where M. E. Stupp, 43, of Texarkana, Tex., was killed when an auto plowed into the rear of a truck. The truck was stalled in a driving rain on water on the road.

Hail piled up in Arlington, between Dallas and Fort Worth so deep trucks were used to haul it away.

Winds at Fort Worth calmed in the waning of a children's storm, but no significant weather was in dealing with such problems, Eisenhower said. He said that is the procedure of debate before decision.

Eisenhower was asked if he thinks the Soviets should be given a trial warning that nuclear war might result if the Communists cut off access to West Berlin.

He replied that he doesn't know how you can free anything with nuclear weapons. He said that if there is any push on the side of the Soviets.

Eisenhower said he can't believe that anybody is going to make hostilities of this kind a reality.

Today's session touched also on the matters.

KHRUSHCHEV — Eisenhower said that he doesn't think much of Soviet Premier Khrushchev's proposal that Russia and the Western Allies station military forces in West Berlin.

Eisenhower prefaced that remark by saying he had said earlier regarding the Berlin situation. He apparently was alluding to earlier remarks that he had said earlier regarding the Berlin situation.

He said he was not sure, but he said he would be glad to discuss it.

Eisenhower was asked if he thought the Soviet proposal was a genuine offer of peace.

He said he was not sure, but he said he would be glad to discuss it.

Eisenhower was asked if he thought the Soviet proposal was a genuine offer of peace.

He said he was not sure, but he said he would be glad to discuss it.

Eisenhower was asked if he thought the Soviet proposal was a genuine offer of peace.

He said he was not sure, but he said he would be glad to discuss it.

Eisenhower was asked if he thought the Soviet proposal was a genuine offer of peace.

He said he was not sure, but he said he would be glad to discuss it.

First Catch Of The Season

A safety pin, line, pole and bait make the first catch of the fishing season what Judy Warren, 9, needed to son at Oklahoma City.

Man Injured In Collision

A man was seriously injured this morning when a school bus and an automobile collided on the Robinson Church Rd. near Flood Rd.

The driver of the school bus and two seven-year-old passengers in the bus were not injured.

County policeman L. S. Hall said Howard Joyner Wallace, 24, of Rt. 1, Harrisburg, was driving the car involved in the wreck.

Wallace was the driver of the car involved in the wreck.

Wallace was the driver of the car involved in the wreck.

Wallace was the driver of the car involved in the wreck.

Wallace was the driver of the car involved in the wreck.

Wallace was the driver of the car involved in the wreck.

Wallace was the driver of the car involved in the wreck.

Wallace was the driver of the car involved in the wreck.

Wallace was the driver of the car involved in the wreck.

Wallace was the driver of the car involved in the wreck.

Wallace was the driver of the car involved in the wreck.

Wallace was the driver of the car involved in the wreck.

Home For Legislature New Building Bill Heads For House

RALEIGH (AP)—A bill to set up a commission to plan and build a new home for the North Carolina Legislature today sailed out of the House Committee on State Government.

The committee sent the measure to the floor of the House with a unanimous favorable report.

Rep. Frank Snapp of Mecklenburg is co-mittee chairman, pointed out that the bill only provides for the commission which would oversee the task of securing a site, obtaining architect's plans, and starting construction of the building.

The Appropriations Committee has the bill which would put the money. Snapp told his committee. The budget recommended by Gov. Hodges and the Advisory Budget Committee earmarked $11 million dollars for the purpose.

Lawmakers looking for funds for other purposes already have been eyeing the building project. Rep. John W. Umstead of Orange has introduced a bill to whittle the amount to a million, with the difference to be used for mental hospital purposes.

The State Government Committee also approved two other bills recommended by the Appropriations Committee.

More Weather Data on Page 4-A

Our Weather

Cloudy with occasional showers or thundershowers this afternoon or tonight.

High temperature yesterday 67
High expected today 55
High expected tomorrow 60
Low this morning 36
Low expected tonight 50

Sunrise, 6:40 a.m.; sunset, 6:27 p.m.

See EUROPEAN on page 4-A

Student Leaders Face Discipline

UNION, N. C. (AP)—Several high school students face disciplinary action because they said "hell" and "damn" during last Saturday night's presentation of the play "The Man Who Came to Dinner."

The original script of the George Kaufman-Bloss Hart comedy contains those words, but student players had agreed to eliminate them for the senior class play.

They did on Friday night. On Saturday night, they didn't. School principal Frank Cooke is attempting to learn if the words were in a specially revised script or were a deliberate slap at censorship.

Evening Prayer

Our Father, may we recognize the importance of attending to the little things of life. May we not overlook the trust values that often lie close by. In all things, may we seek to be faithful to ourselves, our families, our communities, and to Thee. In the Master's name. Amen.

Banker, Industrialist Robert M. Hanes Funeral Thursday

Special to The News

WINSTON-SALEM — Robert M. Hanes, for 25 years president of the south's largest banking concern, died last night in a Winston-Salem hospital.

Mr. Hanes had been in poor health for several months.

Mr. Hanes, former president of Wachovia Bank & Trust Co., also was a former president of the American Bankers Assn.

Funeral Thursday

Gravestone funeral services for Mr. Hanes will be conducted Thursday at 11:30 a. m. in Salem Cemetery by Dr. J. D. Thompson, pastor of Centenary Methodist Church.

In the event of rain, the funeral will be held at Centenary Methodist Church here.

The body will be returned to the home at 5 p. m. today.

Friends are sending condolences to Mr. Hanes' name to the Book of Memorial, J. K. Winston-Salem Foundation, care of Wachovia Bank and Trust Co. here.

Mr. Hanes was president of the Wachovia Bank & Trust Co. for 25 years before being named honorary chairman in 1956. He had served as a director of The Charlotte News since 1947.

His career was marked with significant honors, notable events and wide recognition. He was one of the big bankers in the United States who had held practically all major honors bestowed by the nation's banking associations.

At one point in his career Mr. Hanes declined one of banking's top honors and most important positions. He was offered the presidency of the Chase National Bank of New York, now the Chase Manhattan Bank, at that time.

He was president of the Wachovia Bank & Trust Co. for 25 years before being named honorary chairman in 1956. He had served as a director of The Charlotte News since 1947.

His career was marked with significant honors, notable events and wide recognition. He was one of the big bankers in the United States who had held practically all major honors bestowed by the nation's banking associations.

At one point in his career Mr. Hanes declined one of banking's top honors and most important positions. He was offered the presidency of the Chase National Bank of New York, now the Chase Manhattan Bank, at that time.

He was president of the Wachovia Bank & Trust Co. for 25 years before being named honorary chairman in 1956. He had served as a director of The Charlotte News since 1947.

His career was marked with significant honors, notable events and wide recognition. He was one of the big bankers in the United States who had held practically all major honors bestowed by the nation's banking associations.

At one point in his career Mr. Hanes declined one of banking's top honors and most important positions. He was offered the presidency of the Chase National Bank of New York, now the Chase Manhattan Bank, at that time.

He was president of the Wachovia Bank & Trust Co. for 25 years before being named honorary chairman in 1956. He had served as a director of The Charlotte News since 1947.

His career was marked with significant honors, notable events and wide recognition. He was one of the big bankers in the United States who had held practically all major honors bestowed by the nation's banking associations.

At one point in his career Mr. Hanes declined one of banking's top honors and most important positions. He was offered the presidency of the Chase National Bank of New York, now the Chase Manhattan Bank, at that time.

Get Ready For New Boat Season

See Pages 5-10B

Business 9A 11B
Classified 13-15B
Comics 12B
Crossword Puzzle 9A
Editorials 10A
Everyday Counselor 6A
Lenten Guides 8A
Obituaries 13B
Radio-TV 14A
Serial 5B
Social Security Game 2B
Sports 12-14A
Theaters 11B
To Your Good Health 7A
Women 24B
Worry Clinic 6A

The Light Side See What Happened When They Got Nosey

(From AP Reports)

The woman with the big handbag had a record as a shoplifter, so two Kansas City detectives took her to headquarters.

At the booking desk, Patrolman Emmert Flood of the usual procedure of upending the bag to dump its contents for inventory.

Flash! Splash! Splatter! Consternation.

There was only one item in the bag—a soft, goon, raisin pie.

The Last Word

Rep. Helen Wells of Torrance County rolls in from the New Mexico House to speak for a bill that all community property should go to a surviving widow in case

Iraq, UAR Relations At Lowest

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Relations between Iraq and President Nasser's United Arab Republic sank to a new low today as a result of the revolt against the left-leaning Iraqi government.

The Baghdad government claimed it had smashed the revolt against Premier Abdel Karim Kassem and reports spread that some of the rebel army officers were trying to escape across the Syrian border. Other reports said fighting was still going on, apparently by desperate holdouts trying to flee the country.

The U.A.R.'s semi-official Middle East News Agency charged that Iraqi planes had shot up a Syrian border village. The agency also reported that Iraqi planes had strafed several Iraqi villages in the Mosul area near the border.

Kassem meanwhile expelled 10 U.A.R. diplomats assigned to the Baghdad embassy declaring they were a menace to public safety. The Baghdad correspondent of the Middle East News Agency also was ordered out.

ARRIVE IN CAIRO

Nine of the ousted diplomats arrived in Cairo and reported that the Baghdad government apparently was still clinging in for a fight.

First reports of the revolt made clear that the rebellious army officers wanted to swing the Iraqi government toward Nasser and opposed the growing influence of the Iraqi communists on Kassem.

Mifrid governor Ahmed Saleh of Abdi in a broadcast over Baghdad radio blamed a "foreign power" for sparking the rebellion. It was plain he referred to the U.A.R. Street demonstrations staged in Baghdad to support Kassem turned into anti-Egyptian rallies.

NO RETALIATION

Nasser's news agency accused Iraq of taking "provocative measures against the U.A.R." As yet, however, there was no retaliatory response of Iraqi diplomats from Cairo.

Details of the army revolt were still sketchy.

Diplomatic informants said the rebels had pulled out of the northern oil center of Mosul where Col. Abdel Wallah Shawaf and a group of pro-Nasser followers launched the rebellion Sunday.

A terse report from Baghdad news indicated the government had regained control of Mosul sometime Tuesday. It said the military governor of Iraq had clamped a curfew on the northern city.

The Baghdad station had announced Monday that the revolt was smashed within hours and that Shawaf had been slain by his own men. The rebel radio at first denied the report, then was heard no more after Monday midnight.

SHAWAF DEAD?

The Middle East News Agency said it was returning from the Iraqi-Turkish frontier had reported Shawaf was killed in fighting at Mosul along with a large number of the officers of his six Brigade.

It was my privilege to know Bob Hanes intimately for many years and I was proud to call him my friend. He gave a friendship that never wavered and I shall sorely miss him.

We worked together in many civic and business endeavors, including our associations in Germany during 1950-51 when he was P.M. Mission Chief there. In this responsible governmental position, he showed the same courage, the same initiative and the same interest in human beings as he had always shown here in North Carolina.

He was active in political affairs in North Carolina, but he always placed his interest in good government above individual personalities or party demands.

Bob Hanes was a great person with a warm personality, a keen mind and a genuine concern for helping his community, his state, and his nation in any worthwhile undertaking.

He was always busy, always on the move, but never too busy to accept another public service project that needed to be done. He has left to us a great legacy in public service of high order.

It was my privilege to know Bob Hanes intimately for many years and I was proud to call him my friend. He gave a friendship that never wavered and I shall sorely miss him.

We worked together in many civic and business endeavors, including our associations in Germany during 1950-51 when he was P.M. Mission Chief there. In this responsible governmental position, he showed the same courage, the same initiative and the same interest in human beings as he had always shown here in North Carolina.

He was active in political affairs in North Carolina, but he always placed his interest in good government above individual personalities or party demands.

Bob Hanes was a great person with a warm personality, a keen mind and a genuine concern for helping his community, his state, and his nation in any worthwhile undertaking.