

Name's Neither Danny Nor Thomas

BY ANY OTHER NAME—P. Craig, of Akron, Ind., asks for Danny Thomas' real name and his nationality.

Danny was born Anne Jacobs in Toledo, Ohio, of Lebanese parents.

FIXING PRICES — Mrs. G. C. Thompson, of Houston, wants to know what has happened to the Droscher, Roger Price.

BOTTLED GODS — Mrs. Janet Street, of Larchmont, Pa., is a bit confused about the relationship of Polly Bergen and Pepsi-Cola.

Polly had several years identification as the Pepsi-Cola girl, mostly in a series of filmed commercials and occasional good-will trips for the company. She ended the association so that she could remain in New York with her husband and children.

UDC Plans Memorial Program

"Women of the Confederacy" will be honored Thursday at the Memorial Day program of the Charlotte Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy.

The meeting will be at 3 p.m. with Mrs. Robert E. McDowell, York Rd., president of the chapter.

Speaker will be Mrs. R. N. Hendry, and she will be introduced by Mrs. Robert B. Street.

The program was arranged by Mrs. H. B. Sewell, historian.

Reports of chapter officers will also be given, and music will be under the direction of Mrs. F. L. Andrews.

New members will be honored at the social hour. Mrs. Johnny McDowell is co-hostess for the meeting.

42 'Emmy' Awards Listed

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
NEW YORK (AP)—This is Emmy night, when a lot of TV stars will appear briefly before the cameras to present or receive the golden statues which indicate that he or she or this show was the best of its kind during the year.

For 90 minutes—10:11 p.m. EST—millions of people will be mildly or violently interested in who gets what, how Bob Hope looks, what Dinah Shore and the other women are wearing. The professional critics will review the proceedings as earnestly as if it were a playhouse 90, and there will undoubtedly be some carping in print. Emmy has become a controversial piece of metal.

The awards are given to those elected as best of category by the 4,000 members of the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences. There are 42 categories now—none at all for daytime TV.

For 90 minutes—10:11 p.m. EST—millions of people will be mildly or violently interested in who gets what, how Bob Hope looks, what Dinah Shore and the other women are wearing. The professional critics will review the proceedings as earnestly as if it were a playhouse 90, and there will undoubtedly be some carping in print. Emmy has become a controversial piece of metal.

That the much criticized Academy can winow nominations down to 200 is an achievement. network television alone has an annual volume to fill 10,000 hours, and more than 10,000 programs were eligible for nomination. Hollywood has an output of some 200 major films a year and 200 Oscars.

Nominations are made by producers of TV shows—including their own. "The theory is that producers are in the best position to know the best shows when they see them," said Robert Levine, president of the Academy's New York chapter.

SOME GOOFS

Inevitably there have been some goofs. In the past, the nominated Ed Sullivan's Moseyev dancers program, and Sullivan considers this unfortunate. Several such oversights—some of them presumably by producers who neglected to fill out the nominating cards—have led critics to say that the awards are not as meaningful as they should be.

New Club Officers

Madison Park
Mrs. R. L. McGinn Jr. will be installed as new president of the Madison Park Garden Club Thursday at 8 p.m.

The club will meet at Avondale Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Hugh Fraher will be hostess and Mrs. Dennis Scruggs Jr. will speak on "Composition Depicting Song" and will also install the officers.

Mrs. V. C. Iola is vice president. Mrs. William Poe, secretary. Mrs. Harry Waller, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. L. Z. Eaddy, treasurer.

Arrangements

Winners Told
Mrs. Charles M. Allen of the Lilac Garden Club was blue ribbon winner at the Garden Center's arrangement class Tuesday morning at Sears, Roebuck & Co.

Tuesday morning, there will be an arrangement class at the center featuring "Arrangements Inspired by the painting of Whistler's Mother."

ESA Chapter

Members of the four chapters of Epsilon Sigma Alpha society, met for a Founders' Day luncheon Saturday in the Kirkwood Room on Avondale.

Other officers installed were Mrs. Martha Todd, vice president; Mrs. Theo Coughell, secretary.
